Telegram no. 4022

Dated: September 2, 1 p.m.

From: Bern

Rec'd: September 2, 1:24 p.m.

According to report of Kiel agents it is known for certain that it has been stated by submarine commanders who are now instructors at submarine school at Kiel that they and other submarine commanders have used secret German submarine bases in French Morocco and in South Argentine. They have further stated that they have been able to put ashore sick and in some cases wounded crew members. They have also obtained fuel, replacement parts, and even ammunition at these secret bases which are under the command of German naval officers. Active aid is given by local Nazi organizations and it is believed that their activities would have to have either tolerance or active protection of some of local authorities. It has been stated by commanders at Kiel that without these bases it would not have been possible for the Axis to maintain at the prevailing level their submarine activities in West Atlantic waters. It has also been stated that recently great quantities of pesos have been taken from Europe by submarine commanders leaving for West Atlantic waters.

No. 889, June 6, 1942

94252 6/5

This is paraphrase of our message referred to in your 1073: a large organization operated by George Gough and 1 canton are engaged in supplying fuel to enemy submarines according to British Intelligence. This group obtain oil in bulk through 2 Mexicans in Puerto Mexico believed to be named Gonzalez and Perez. The operators, Gough and Canton, Furnish drums and transport the oil on their boats. These boats are named Angidi, Mary Kaud and Albert. These boats later transfer this oil to smaller boats off the outer Cuays of British Honduras. These smaller boats which also belong to the Gough Group make deliveries to dumps on islands ranging from Alacran Cuay off Progreso Mexico to Panama. Small boats are names: Pronto, Tosta, Bravo and Etalia. Gerald Coe is Goughs agent in: a meeting place in Panama is the Florida Cabaret in: on whose activity pcd has submitted reports to cig. 1 of 3 sets of code used by these men have been obtained. British urge that action on this matter be delayed short time until more information secured. Pcd will control Gough boats attempting to enter or leave Canal Zone.
