

Motion Observation

Draw and label a model of the playground object when it is not moving:	Draw and label a model of the playground object when it is moving:
What do you notice about how the object doesn't move?	What do you notice about how the object moves?
What do you think caused the object to not move?	What do you think caused the object to move?
What questions do you have about the movement of the object?	