Weather-Wise Sentence Starters

General Sentence Starters:

The months with the highest average __________ are ____________.

The months with the lowest average __________ are ____________.

The average ____________ varies between ____________ over the year.

You are most likely to experience a (weather hazard) during the months of ____________.

The month of ____ has _____ more (or less) _______ than the month of _____ on average.

Temperature:

- The warmest months are __________. The hottest average temperatures during these months are ________.
- The coldest months are __________. The coldest average temperatures during these months are ________.
- High temperatures are (degrees) more (or less) in Burlington during the month of ________ than they are in (my city).
- The average temperature varies descriptive word over the year.
- The temperature in __________ during the months of ____________ can be described as ____________.

Wind

- The windiest months of the year are ____________.
- The months with the least wind are ____________.
- The windiest season of the year in __________ is usually ____________.
Bright Sunshine

- The months with the most sunlight are __________.
- The months with the least sunlight are __________.
- The month of ______ has ______ more / less hours of sunlight than the month of ________.
- The month of ______ has ______ more / less hours of sunlight than in Burlington.
- The season of _____________ has the most/least amount of bright sunshine days on average.

Precipitation

- The city receives a total of ________________ inches of precipitation on average. This is _____ more / fewer inches than Burlington.
- The wettest month is ________. A total of _____ inches of precipitation falls on average.
- Snow does (or does not fall) in ____________.
- The snowiest months of the year are ______________.

Weather Hazard

- One weather hazard you might find in the city is a ____________.
- This weather is dangerous because ________________.
- One thing you can use in (city’s name) is a ________________.
- We can protect ourselves by using a______________.
- We can protect our home by ________________.
- The ________ doesn’t fully protect us because ________________.