Triacontagon: A Celebration of 30 Years of the Artists' Fellowship Program @ Westbeth Gallery

Curated by David C. Terry

55 Bethune Street, New York, NY

By definition, a triacontagon is a thirty-sided star polygon. Although it is a star in its geometric configuration, it is also a circle, which represents the full-circle relationship NYFA has with its Fellows, supporters and constituents. We borrow this terminology to symbolize the thirtieth anniversary of our Artists' Fellowship Program and its scope.

Artists: Danielle Abrams, Elia Alba, Tomie Arai, Judith Barry, Orit Ben-Shitrit, Niki Berg, Charles Biasiny-Rivera, Terry Boddie, Peer Bode, Rimer Cardillo, Josely Carvalho, James Carpenter, Vince Contarino, Kevin Cook, Donna Dennis, Lesley Dill, Michael Ferris Jr., Pat Flynn, Chitra Ganesh, Cadence Giersbach, Kate Gilmore, Guerrilla Girls, Raymond Ghirardo, Kathy High, Yoko Inoue, Jaguar Mary X (Jocelyn Taylor), John Knecht, Mary Lum, Deborah Margolin, Scott McCarney, Monteith McCollum, Lillian Mulero, Lori Nix, Megan Roberts, Ann Reichlin, Martha Rosler, Dread Scott, Renee Tajima-Peña, Hank Willis Thomas, Carmelita Tropicana, Mierle Laderman Ukeles, Igor Vamos and Bora Yoon

Face to Place @ Deutsche Bank

Curated by David C. Terry and Felicity Hogan

60 Wall Street, New York, NY

An exhibition of select works from participants in NYFA's Immigrant Artist Mentoring Program (IAP) from 2007 – 2014. The exhibition highlights works that draw attention to the acute artistic observations that are often manifested through the immigrant artist experience, and the unique perspectives cultivated through transitioning to, living, and creating in another country. Face to Place is a theme broadly interpreted in the scope of portraiture and sense of place – whether urban or natural, with observations on society, culture and humanity.

Artists: Soumaila Adigun, Julio Jose Austria, Pablo Carpio, Priscila De Carvalho, Liuyu Chen, Volker Goetze, Katya Grokhovsky, Elena Kalman, Jung. S. Kim, Cordula Maria Rien Kuntari, Grace Jahng Lee, Eleen Lin, Mersiha Mesihovic, Doris Neidl, Eva Nikolova, Sunghee Pae, Javier Peñalosa, Olivie Ponce, Laetitia Soulier, Hidemi Takagi, Miryana Todorova, Denise Treizman, Carlos César Valle, Ezra Wube, Vivian Yang and Hai Zhang

Steven Montgomery: Subsequent Archaeologies @ NYFA Gallery

Curated by David C. Terry

20 Jay Street, Suite 740, Brooklyn, NY

NYFA is pleased to present this “conference room” installation of ceramic, mixed media and site specific sculptures that suggest the verisimilitude of machinery and the decline of the industrial age. The Brooklyn based artist is a native of Detroit and his work reflects a keen awareness of the visceral impact of urban decay and the waning of Brooklyn as a manufacturing epicenter.

Artist: Steven Montgomery

Exhibition Dates: May 29, 2015 – June 2017

La Crisalida @ NYFA Gallery

Curated by David C. Terry

20 Jay Street, Suite 740, Brooklyn, NY

An exhibition highlighting artists from NYFA’s 2013 Guatemalan Boot Camp. La Crisalida, or Chrysalis in English, refers to the stage of growth when a caterpillar turns into a butterfly or adult. The idea of this transformation, transition, or metamorphosis is symbolic to the changes that are occurring in the art world in Guatemala. NYFA welcomes 23 Guatemalan artists to reflect on how these ideas of change or evolution are being manifested.

Back to Life Resurrection Reimagined @ Saint Ann & the Holy Trinity Church

Curated by David C. Terry of NYFA, and Harry Weil, Matthew Leaycraft, with Rev. John Denaro from St. Ann & the Holy Trinity Church.

157 Montague Street, Brooklyn, NY

An exhibition featuring work by NYSICA/NYFA Fellows, Immigrant Artist Mentoring Program artists, and Boot Camp Artists. With both site-specific and already realized works by ten contemporary artists, Back to Life: Resurrection Reimagined features multiple thematic interpretations relating to the concept of resurrection and renewed life set within the context of the 168 year-old church. In 14 panels spanning balconies along the main sanctuary’s north and south sides, the artists express their particular ideas about resurrection. While most commonly associated with Christian theologies about Jesus Christ, resurrection remains a central theme within many religions, mythologies and belief systems.
