Hey, it's JT Pierce, and I'm going to put my money where my mouth is.

There are really only a couple of ways you could've gotten ahold of this PDF.

One is that you grabbed it off my website at online-dating-mastery.com

Or a friend who thought you might get something out of it forwarded it to you. That's great! Use it to meet as many women as possible and feel free to pass this to your other friends as long as you don't change it.

What you have here is the best email that me and over 100 other guys have tested. It's actually the first in a series of emails that we send based on what she says in her response and whether or not she even responds to our first message.

So This Is My "Put Up Or Shut Up" PDF.

In the next few pages I'm going to flat out give you a "magic email" you can use right now to get women to email you, often within minutes of contacting them. You will prove to yourself beyond a shadow of a doubt that you can use emails to create that irresistible, unstoppable emotion in women.

You WILL get women emailing you back. What you do after that is up to you.

Using this one simple email you will see...

- An increase in the number of replies women send you.
- Women becoming more interested and intrigued by you.
- Better quality women responding to your emails.

So, give this magic email a try and let me know how it goes for you.

How To Get A Reply In 20 Minutes Or Less

Choosing The Women You Send Messages To

First of all, it's a whole lot easier to get a girl to respond right away if she's online when you send your message.

And to get you the results I promise in the title of this report, you'll want to email women who are online and who see your message right away.

How many First Messages Should You Send Out?

I would recommend that you send out at least 10 messages to start with, that way you have a better chance of getting a response right away. I want you to be successful out of the gate. Plus, success breeds success and I'd like to see you meet a lot of women online.

Fortunately, getting 10 messages out quick is really easy since you can copy and paste this message "as is" if you're in a hurry. Or you can make minor changes that just take a minute if you want to personalize the message a bit.

Quick Edits To The Email

The message doesn't need much modification at all and can be copied and pasted "as is" to almost any woman.

But... I would recommend that you use her username (or her real name if she tells it to you in her profile).

Also, you always want to sign your messages with your name so she knows who she's talking to.

How Soon Will Women Respond?

A few women will reply to your email right after they read it. You'll want to get these "hot to trot" girls out on a date or over to your place as soon as you can.

Some women will check out your profile and your pictures. If they like what they see, they'll email. These women already have a feel for you and they're the easiest to seduce.

Other women will be so impressed with your message that they'll want to think about it and write a more thoughtful response when they have more time. In those cases, you may not hear from a girl for a few days and when you do, hang on, because you've got a live one.

And of course there will be some women who never respond at all. That's normal and in my video guide on emailing women, Inbox Overload, I have a bunch of emails to send if you don't get a reply from someone.

The Magic Email

Hi Her Name or Username!

Just got done reading your profile, but unfortunately I gotta run...

I'm heading out to meet some friends and you're going to make me late! But there were some things about you that really stand out, so I just have to write you quick.

You seem like you know who you are and what you want. And I get the feeling that you've worked hard to get where you are. If I'm right, I'm impressed.

Take a look at my profile and shoot me a quick message back. This could be fun and you seem interesting.

Quick Breakdown of a FIRST Email

I go into a lot more detail on the female psychology in the system on writing first emails that I took this from. But basically your first message has to let a woman know that you NOTICED her but that you AREN'T ATTRACTED to her yet.

You want her to know she got your interest but she's going to have to work to get you attracted to her in a sexual way.

This email does both of those things... and a whole lot more. The psychological triggers in here are proven to get women to respond.

Also notice the language here is kinda "bossy". As men, we need to be decisive and lead, but we need to do it respectfully. This message does that.

What To Do When She Responds:

I'm a big believer in striking when the iron's hot. There are so many distractions in life these days and there is so much competition for women online that unless you "get while the gettin's good," you're gonna get nothin'. So...

Once you've got her hooked, don't waste any time reeling her in. Send her another message and get her out on a date and into bed or a relationship as soon as you can!

If you'd like to get her out on a date as quickly as possible, check out my copy and paste system on emailing women, Inbox Overload. It's literally jam-packed with DOZENS and DOZENS of emails, tips, tools, and techniques for going from "Is she into me?" to "She can't get enough of me..."

Or... if you just want a guide to sending first emails, you can get my little eBook. It doesn't cost as much as Inbox Overload, but it only covers first emails.

Downloading either it is FAST AND EASY. You can be putting these systems to work for YOUR success with women in just a few minutes.
