2017 CTE Technical Assistance Initiative: Resources and Supports

The Office of Career, Technical, and Adult Education (OCTAE), the Division of Academic and Technical Education (DATE) presents a webinar on customized technical assistance provided for states. In this webinar, members of OCTAE will provide information on the technical assistance to states application process and resources, and state recipients of technical assistance will showcase their experiences. Join us by clicking on the registration link above.

JOIN OUR WEBINAR
SEPTEMBER 21, 2017, 3:30-4:30pm ET
Register here

Technical Assistance to States

Presentations by:

- Kim R. Ford, Deputy Assistant Secretary, Delegated the duties of the Assistant Secretary for Career, Technical, and Adult Education, US Dept. of Education
- Sharon Lee Miller, Director, Division of Academic and Technical Education
- John Haigh, Branch Chief, Accountability and Performance Branch, DATE
- Janell Kochevar, Senior Web Designer, RTI International
- Chad Maclin, State Director, Office of the State Superintendent of Education, District of Columbia
- Marty Tobey, Regional Coordinator, Career and Technical Education, North Carolina Department of Public Instruction
- Katie Graham, Deputy State Director, Nebraska Department of Education

US DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Office of Career, Technical, and Adult Education (OCTAE)

Division of Academic and Technical Education (DATE)

Perkins Collaborative Resource Network (PCRN)

http://cte.ed.gov