International Forensic Program at Physicians for Human Rights

Reference Form for Course Applicants

Applicant Information:

Name of applicant

Referee Details:

Name
Address
Phone number
Email address

Reference: (all information will be kept confidential)

Please describe the length and nature of your relationship to the applicant:
Describe the nature of the applicant's human rights experience:
Please explain how the applicant's current work may benefit from this course:
To your knowledge, has the applicant been involved in or witnessed any violations of international humanitarian law? If yes, please explain.
To your knowledge, has the applicant been a member of an intelligence or security service of any country?
Applicants must have a minimum of three years experience as a criminal investigator or senior human rights researcher, or experience in a related field. Does the applicant meet these criteria?
Please comment on applicant's character and suitability to participate in this course:

Thank you for completing this reference. Additional pages may be attached to expand on these questions.
Please return this form to the IFP by February 28, 2011.
This form can be printed and mailed or faxed to us or submitted electronically using the buttons below.

International Forensic Program at Physicians for Human Rights
2 Arrow Street, Suite 301, Cambridge, MA 02138
o.617.301.4226 – f.617.301.4250

Print Form

Email Form