

The PNW Annual Conference of the UMC Background Investigation Release Form

In order to provide a secure environment for those to whom we provide services, our staff and volunteers, and our community, PNW Annual Conference, by and through its agents and representatives, routinely procures background investigations (called "consumer reports" under the Fair Credit Reporting Act) on those who minister on the Church's behalf. Please understand that this policy helps us ensure that our services are delivered in a professional and safe manner. This may include procurement of a criminal background check, which may include; identity verification, County, State and Federal searches, and/or motor vehicle report from MinistrySafe, LLC, a Consumer Reporting Agency.

By signing below, you grant permission to the PNW Annual Conference of the UMC, by and through its agents and representatives, to obtain such a report now or at any point in the next 6 months in connection with your volunteer position or employment. You also grant permission to all parties to release information regarding your character, previous or current military service, or criminal or civil litigation matters to the PNW Annual Conference of the UMC, by and through its agents and representatives.
