PAYMENT (Make checks payable to Potters for Peace)

I am paying with 2 checks: $100 as a deposit with completed application form and the balance of $1700 before January 1, 2018

I am paying the full amount ($1800) by check right now

I will pay through PayPal.

To pay by PayPal, go to this link: http://pottersforpeace.com/?page_id=202. Indicate that you will be paying a one-time donation. Enter the amount and complete the transaction. Then send an email to Jennifer Mally (executivedirector@pottersforpeace.org) to tell her what the one-time donation is for. You can also get to PayPal through the "Make a Donation" link on our website. www.pottersforpeace.org

- I understand that a portion of this fee goes toward supporting Potters for Peace programs

CHECKLIST OF THINGS TO DO

- Thoroughly review the Orientation Packet
- Book your flights. Arrival in Managua should be on January 20th and departure from Managua should be on Feb 3rd.
- Email your itinerary to Robert Pillers at Robert@potterforpeace.org
- Pay your deposit of $100 when you submit the completed registration form
- Pay the balance of the fee by January 1, 2018
- Make sure your passport is up-to-date. Nicaragua requires that visitors' passports be valid for at least 6 months past the scheduled date of departure from Nicaragua
- Make a copy of your passport picture and personal info page before you leave
- Make sure your inoculations are up-to-date. Hepatitis and tetanus shots are a good idea
- Bring along the prescription for any prescription drugs you are taking
- If you plan to travel overland to Nicaragua or visit other countries before or after the brigade, check with us concerning visa requirements
- Email Robert Pillers (our Nicaraguan director) a week before departure to confirm your plans
