

Divine Connection

Breathing in and out. As you breathe in, breathing pink and gold energy and as you breathe out breathe without any negativity, worry, concern. Feeling yourself surrounded in this beautiful field as quantum pleasure field. Breathing in and out grounding yourself to the centre of the earth with the grounding cord as wide as your risk hollowing the center from the first shocker base of the spine to the center of the earth. Set the grounding cord on release and release any excess energy in the body without worry and concern popping up to the center of your head. Let's go ahead and take a spiritual fire hose to wash out any looping thoughts, worries or concerns becoming very present feeling very wonderful, very good, very happy popping up at the top of the head putting the aura about 18 inches above the body. Lets vacuum out the inside of the aura so that its christened and sparkled. When that vacuum cleaner has spiraled and spiraled around and gotten everything cleaned. Go ahead and throw that vacuum cleaner down the grounding cord. You are doing a wonderful job. I would like you to now go back and sit in the center of you head feeling very connected and very wonderful. I would like you to sit on your throne room in the center of your head and however you experience the divine. Some people feel that the divine is the quantum field, some people experience a divine personality. You are right in whatever you imagine, in whatever you believe in whatever is true to you. You are completely right. You are now surrounded in this divine quantum field in this pleasure field and I would like you to imagine you in your throne room in the center of you head and perhaps a golden spotlight is shining on you from if it's a personality, if it's God, the father and that golden light is shining down from God the father from above. Feel the love and connection and feel sane, feel that you are the only one that in this moment the divine is uniquely and completely connected with you. Not to exclude others because they will all have their own unique experience but I want you to really bring home that you are important. That every individual but you in particular are remembered and cherished and that it is really what your mind allows you to imagine and believe. It is how connected you will be.

When you feel this amazing love, this power, this generosity and pleasure feeling connected with the divine feeling the quantum field amplifying all that is good and right and beautiful in your life. You are home you are divinely connected, you are loved, you are cherished, you are important, your mission and just your very presence makes a difference in this world. Allow your body, your physical body, your spiritual body to become one and allow this connection to go to every cell of this golden light and this quantum pleasure field to go to every cell in the body. Breathing in a few nice deep breath and coming out and opening your eyes and really reconnecting with your body, touching your legs and arms and maybe even touching your toes and welcome back into a divinely connected united world.
