My Payment Network, Inc. and Gray Step Software Announce Co-Marketing Relationship
*Accounting and eCommerce Solutions Unite to Serve K12

Houston, Texas– (Feb. 17, 2015) – Today, at the Texas Association of School Business Officials show, Gray Step Software and My Payment Network announced a co-marketing and licensing agreement that allows payment data from SchoolPay, the leading, K12 aggregation payment solution, to seamlessly post into Gray Step Software's ASBWorks, PTAEZ™, and Booster Finance systems. Gray Step Software users will also now be able to collect in-person, mobile and online payments with SchoolPay.

“We are excited about this seamless connection between two leading K12 solutions. The partnership expands the functionality of both solutions and delivers an unbeatable solution to the school segments we both serve”, said Brian Cichella, President, Gray Step Software. David Dunaway, President and CEO of SchoolPay added, “Gray Step's suite of education-focused accounting software beautifully compliments our education-focused electronic, in-person, and mobile payment solutions. We share a passion for eliminating manual work for schools and nonprofit administrators. ”

This integrated offering will have no additional cost to schools, districts, or education non-profit groups, while saving these groups countless time in manual accounting work. Bookkeepers who enter fee data in ASBWorks, PTAEZ™, and Booster Finance.com will not need to re-key that data in SchoolPay. Payments made through SchoolPay's in-person, mobile and online payment solutions will post directly into ASBWorks, PTAEZ™ and Booster Finance.com.
