

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Weidenhammer Partners with My Payment Network to Seamlessly Integrate Fees Software with eCommerce Service

Madison, WI – March 29, 2012 – My Payment Network, Inc. and Weidenhammer Systems Corporation (Weidenhammer) today announced that they are partnering to seamlessly integrate My Payment Network's eCommerce service, SchoolPay, with Weidenhammer's alio® CA$H Course Fees Management Software, saving schools countless time in managing payments.

"We are thrilled to expand the alio CA$H administrative tool with SchoolPay's eCommerce suite," states John P. Weidenhammer, President of Weidenhammer. "SchoolPay will automatically post all eCommerce payments directly into alio®, saving our school customers countless hours of manual data-entry work."

David Dunaway, CEO of My Payment Network added, "Weidenhammer and My Payment Network share a common goal to reduce software and service redundancy in school districts. SchoolPay was developed to be complimentary with any and all applications in the district that rely on payments. Together, alio and SchoolPay, will streamline the business of managing payments in a way that hasn't been offered in the marketplace until now."

SchoolPay will be available to alio customers in the 2.0 release of alio CA$H, slated for April 30, 2012.
