

Please find following current status of which ports/state that requires 14 days quarantine before vessel berthing/pilot on board. Subject to change.

State	14 days Quarantine required before vessel berthing/pilot on board	Comments
QLD	Yes	Based on the trade profiles of these ports and following extensive consultation with stakeholders, vessel entry requires 14 days since departure from last overseas port. Vessels can apply for an exemption to the respective Regional Harbour Master if they are arriving within 14 days.
QLD – Brisbane & Townsville & Gladstone & Port Alma & Bundaberg	No	There is no requirement for vessels to have been underway for 14 days or more from an overseas port prior to arrival. (crew needs to isolate on board if within 14 days)
NSW	No
VIC	No	vessels still are permitted to berth and work cargo if arriving within the 14 day period
VIC – Geelong	Yes	still requires 14 days since last overseas port, however if there are no planned crew changed, exemption can be applied for to berth within the 14 day period.
TAS	Yes	- All ports, however exemptions can be applied for New Zealand & Pacific Island.
SA	No	No Vessel restrictions for South Australia, Master needs to complete an arrival Port Authority health questionnaire and if all in order Pilot will board vessel and berth. At this time all crew are restricted on board the vessel during port stay.
NT	No
NT – Bayu Udán	Yes	Vessels are required to complete 14 days quarantine from last foreign port prior to berthing at Bayu Udán.
NT – Ichthys Venturer Terminal	No	As with onshore, we do accept carriers to load Field condensate at the FPSO Ichthys Venturer Marine Terminal under the 14 day period. This is managed and risk assessed through the Vessel Self-Assessment form, which is completed at the 96 and 24 hr period, prior to arrival at the Terminal.
NT–Groote Eylandt	Yes	enforcing a 14 day quarantine period prior to berthing.
Bing Bong	-	Check/confirm with charterers nominated agent either Monsons or Townsville Shipping Agents

WA – Kwinana BP Refinery	Yes	BP Refinery Terminal have 14 day restrictions for all vessels from International ports barring exceptional circumstances in order to provide the essential services so as to continue to meet responsibilities to the community
WA – Fremantle/Kwinana	Not if conditions are met	Our understanding is that vessels are still able to berth within fourteen days of departure from their most recent foreign port of call and work cargo, so long as there is no symptoms of COVID-19 infection aboard and subject to the terminal's discretion to be determined on a case-by-case basis. The vessel is also required to adhere to the attached Fremantle Ports requirements.
WA - Dampier	Yes	RIO Tinto have 14 days restrictions for all vessels from all International ports
WA – Dampier	No	Woodside allow vessels to berth within 14 days of arrival from International ports, provided they complete a questionnaire
WA – Port Hedland	Yes	All vessels arriving from international ports require 14 day quarantine period before they allowed to berth.
WA - Albany & Esperance	Yes	All vessels are subject to a fourteen-day incubation period as per the attached Southern Ports Authority (SPA) Vessel Entry Requirements, Epidemic & Pandemic Action Plan and Update to Stakeholders & Users.
WA - Geraldton	Yes, unless Harbour Master approves otherwise	All vessels are subject to a fourteen-day incubation period, which may be reviewed and over-ruled by the Harbour Master after a Risk Assessment has been undertaken, as per the attached Mid-West Ports Authority (MWPA) Harbour Master's Instruction.
WA – Barrow Island	Not if conditions are met	Our understanding is that vessels are still able to berth within fourteen days of departure from their most recent foreign port of call and work cargo, so long as there is no symptoms of COVID-19 infection aboard and subject to the terminal's discretion to be determined on a case-by-case basis.
WA – Cossack & Ngujima Yin FPSO	No	Woodside will berth a vessel within the 14 days, the master will need to complete COVID-19 health declaration.
WA – VanGogh Terminal & Varanus Island	Yes	Yes the vessel will need to wait for the 14 days to pass
WA – Stag Marine Terminal	Yes	Subject where the vessel is coming from and the master will need to complete COVID-19 health declaration.
WA – Pyrenees Venture	Yes	Subject where the vessel is coming from