Course Descriptions:

Time Trial: 15.52 miles with 630ft. elevation gain
Leaves town of Rosman and follow Hwy 64. Begins with short, steep climb then rolls along river valley for almost 6 miles. The course then climbs up and over ridge to connect to road course and follows French Broad River back to Rosman.

Road Race: 15.67 miles with 778ft. elevation gain/lap
Starts in Rosman and rolls along French Broad river before hitting the ½ mile, steep Walnut Hollow climb, followed by a gradual descent onto winding roads. The race will hit a second short and steep climb before coming back into Rosman.

Criterium: 0.7 miles with 79ft. elevation gain/lap
The course is located in a residential and business district right off of Main St. in downtown Brevard. It's a four corner course with the start/finish midway up the climb. After the start/finish it takes a sharp right which has a steep kick for 10-15 meters, then a flat before a right onto a short descent which provides plenty of room for passing. Course follows a wide road with some rough pavement sections then takes another right to climb back to start/finish.

- Helmets must be worn at all times and 'yellow line rule' will be in effect
- Race promoter has authority to change lap numbers or start times if necessary
