Race Rules: Helmets are mandatory!

All USAC rules apply - www.usacycling.org

GEAR AND BIKE RESTRICTIONS apply to all juniors (10-18). See 2013-USAC-Rulebook.pdf for more information: 114. Youth/Junior Gears and 115. Young Junior/Youth Bicycles

No neutral support. Have a pump and spare tube!

Individuals depart at 20-second intervals. Teams depart at 60-second intervals. Per USAC rules, all racers must be at the start line 3 min prior to their start for staging.

Individuals & Teams can be DQed if they do not stay on the shoulder of US 36, Nelson Road and 75th St., except if passing another rider/team.

Individuals and Teams can be DQed if they do not stay as far right as practical on Neva & Niwot Roads.

Riders may not draft other riders in the ITT. See USAC 2013 rulebook for complete details on drafting and passing.

Teams may draft own team members in the TTT only. Here, teams are defined as riders who wear the same TTT number.

Men's TTT teams may consist of up to 5 members. The team's finish time is determined by the third rider across the finish line for each team.

Junior & Women's TTT teams may consist of up to 4 members. The team's finish time is determined by the second rider across the finish line.

For TTT only, racers may race up categories to fill teams. (See Rocky Mountain Cup policy 18.5.7 at www.coloradocycling.org for details).
