

2016 Virtuoso Travel Week Tours Frequently Asked Questions

1. What are Virtuoso Travel Week Tours?

Networking with thirty (30) Virtuoso Preferred Partners in timed appointments. This exclusive networking opportunity is offered for members who are actively selling travel. This new format allows the Preferred Partners to meet with advisors locally, and meet them in more cities. This was one of the components of the traditional Regional Meetings in 2015.

2. What happened to Regional Meetings?

The Regional Meetings had three components that included an Owner/Manager session, Preferred Partner Networking for all attendees, and Professional Development for all attendees. The three components were the framework for designing the meetings that replace the traditional Regional Meetings: Virtuoso Travel Week Tours; Professional Development; and an Owner/Manager meeting.

3. What happened to Professional Development?

Professional Development Days will be offered in five cities in the U.S. and one city in Mexico. These dates will be in conjunction with Virtuoso Travel Week Tours. Attendees may elect to attend just Professional Development or Professional Development and Virtuoso Travel Week Tours.

4. Who should attend Virtuoso Travel Week Tours?

Frontline advisors, independent contractors, owners/managers actively selling travel

5. How many Virtuoso Travel Week Tours are available in 2016?

Virtuoso will offer 22 tour events throughout the year. Visit Virtuoso Travel Week Tours page on the Virtuoso Events site for a complete list of dates, cities and locations. The 22 locations include USA (10), Canada (2), Latin America (5), Australia (3) and Europe (2).

6. I noticed that there are multiple cities in one week. Are the suppliers the same in each city?

Yes. With each week-long tour, a group of approximately 30 Virtuoso preferred partners will make three to four city stops.

7. What is the agenda for Virtuoso Travel Week Tours?

In each city, there will be two half-day partner networking sessions during which you'll have the option of attending either the morning or the afternoon session. The preferred partners will be the same in each session and attendees will meet with all preferred partners.

8. What is the cost to attend for Virtuoso Travel Week Tours?

There's no registration cost for attendees, and a combined lunch is included for both sessions.

9. Can I attend in more than one city or date?

Sure, you're welcome to attend more than one as there will be different preferred partners in each tour.

10. Do I need to register?

Yes, registration is required. Walk-up registrations will not be accepted.

11. Is there a limit to how many members can attend?

Each Virtuoso Travel Week Tour session allows for 90 attendees for a total of 180 per city.

12. Are there any fees that I need to be aware of?

Fees will apply in the event of cancellations, no-shows, changes, and late registrations.

- Late Registration - $25 - For any accepted registrations after the deadline
- Changes - $25 - For any changes received after the registration deadline
- Cancellation - $50 - For any cancellations received after the registration deadline
- No Show - $50 - For any "no shows" at the actual event

13. When does registration open and close?

Registration will open approximately 75 days prior and close 30 days prior to first city of the entire week. For example, if February 1 is the first city, registration will open 75 days prior and close 30 days prior to February 1. All registration dates are on the Virtuoso Travel Week Tours events page.

14. Can I attend any Virtuoso Travel Week Tour?

Virtuoso Travel Weeks are open to any attendees. However, Preferred Partners will attend from their own local markets/regions. Some of the products and services may not apply in certain markets. Some attendee requests may require a review by Virtuoso’s Global Member Partnerships team and also by the agency’s Owner/Manager. If you have further questions about your attendance at a specific location, please contact your Global Member Partnership team member or your Owner/Manager.
