

Are you willing to review from electronic galleys (e-galleys) of print books and/or ebooks? If so, what do you read on?

Summarize your educational background and professional history, giving dates and names of institutions. You may attach a separate sheet if necessary.

What additional knowledge have you derived from independent study, hobbies, travel experiences, or membership in associations?

Are there subjects in your fields you prefer not to review?

With which regions of the U.S. are you familiar?

Have you lived in any countries outside of the U.S. for extended periods? For how long?

Are you fluent in any foreign languages? Which ones?

In order to avoid conflicts of interest, please name any authors in your fields who are personal friends, colleagues, or family members. If applicable, note the publishers of your own books.

If you will be reviewing books in politics, philosophy, or religion, please state your own personal beliefs.
