"Truth at Work"

Ray is the CEO and Co-Founder of TRUTH @ WORK, a not-for-profit ministry, whose mission is to "change the way America works by bringing the Good News of Jesus Christ to the marketplace." Truth@Work specializes in helping Christian business owners and leaders build strong organizations and integrate their faith into the marketplace, through leadership and business development programs that are built on biblical principles and practices.

From 1993-98, Ray was a Regional Director for Promise Keepers, where he was a speaker at many PK events, as well as facilitated large conferences and developed training programs for churches and other ministries. Ray has co-authored a novel titled "The Janitor-How An Expected Friendship Transformed A CEO And His Company." The book features the story of a young CEO mentored by a godly janitor who teaches the struggling young business executive the true definition of success and business. Their new book "Carrot Chaser- The 4 Keys to Living out your faith at home and work," is scheduled for release in early to mid 2008.

Ray and his wife, Beth, reside in Indianapolis with their son and two daughters. They are heavily involved in their local church, and with several other religious and business organizations.
