

Christmas Light SCAVENGER HUNT

"God's love never stops looking for you, trying to find you and gently drawing you back close to Him."

- Ann Voskamp, "Unwrapping The Greatest Gift"

Hunt for a little Christmas fun with your family this year!
Go on a Christmas Light Scavenger Hunt!

directions:

Print the Scavenger Hunt chart on the next page.
You can print one per person or one for the whole family.

Pack up the kids in the car.

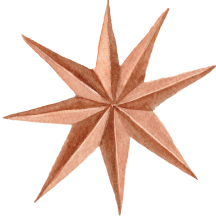

Bring along some cookies or popcorn and hot cocoa and your favourite Christmas carols & hymns. Sing them loud and off tune and make a memory!

Let the hunt begin!

Drive around town and search for the Christmas lights & decorations on your list! See how many you can find!

Christmas Light

SCAVENGER HUNT

a manger	a decorated mailbox	flashing or twinkling lights	wise men	a "Merry Christmas" sign
an indoor tree seen through a window	decorations that move	a bow	a light display that also plays music	an angel
homemade decorations	a sled		the word "holy"	a present/gift
oversized candy canes	a bell	a display that makes you laugh ("oxygenated grace")	oversized ornaments	a house decorated in only one color
a lit up church steeple with a cross on top	a display that shows the love of God	a snowflake	a star	one thing that whispered Jesus to you

"That is always the secret to unwrapping the biggest, greatest, grandest gift: believe that the love of Jesus is in the place where you don't expect it."

- Ann Voskamp, "Unwrapping The Greatest Gift"
