Association for the Advancement of Wound Care Recognizes 2016 Corporate Sponsors and Announces Open Enrollment for the 2017 Sponsorship Program

Malvern, PA; November 3, 2016

The Association for the Advancement of Wound Care (AAWC) is pleased to acknowledge the generous support of its 2016 corporate sponsors and announces open enrollment for the 2017 sponsorship program.

Corporate support is vital for sustaining the AAWC's valued, evidence-based and patient-focused programs and activities. This year's AAWC Corporate Sponsors include: Smith & Nephew, 3M, Acelity, Convatec, Hollister, Integra Life Sciences, Medline, Molnlycke, Organogenesis, Osiris Therapeutics, BioCompression Systems, Boyd Technologies, Celgene, Dipexium Pharmaceuticals and MiMedx.

AAWC Corporate Sponsorship provides lucrative benefits based on level of support, including the exclusive opportunity for industry sponsors to meet with AAWC officers and other key wound care industry leaders at quarterly Corporate Advisory Panel meetings. As stakeholders with a common purpose of helping patients, the panel focuses on education and public awareness, with the ultimate goal of elevating standards of wound care practice worldwide.

Additionally, through AAWC's strong, dedicated Healthcare Public Policy Committee, sponsors receive unbiased wound care information, alerts and support on matters of US government and regulatory affairs.

The Association's 2017 sponsorship campaign is underway. There are three levels of financial support from which wound care corporations can choose, and many benefits apply within each category. To learn more about the program, visit the AAWC website at <http://aawconline.org/sponsorship>.

For additional information and/or to become a sponsor, please contact AAWC Project Manager, Karen Strauss, at kstrauss@aawconline.org or 800.237.7285, extension 4113.
