Association for the Advancement of Wound Care's Career Center is a Rapidly Growing Resource for Wound Care Employers and Job Seekers

Malvern, PA, July 8, 2013

The Association for the Advancement of Wound Care (AAWC) provides the AAWC Career Center – the “go to” resource for hospitals, clinics, home health agencies, rehabilitation centers, other healthcare facilities and corporations seeking specialized wound care professionals. Individual and Corporate AAWC Members are guaranteed a minimum of $100 in savings on even the smallest package. Please join AAWC to receive this discounted service as well as many more benefits.

Coupled with its user-friendly functionality, employers enjoy the resume database, which allows employers to search for qualified candidates. Employers can receive help with government compliance, have access to job posting tips and are able to reference other valuable employer-related resources as needed. As an added service at no charge, AAWC will share employer postings on Facebook and LinkedIn.

Register to view a demo version of the resume database at no charge before posting ads online. Based on one's needs, the center has many job posting packages. Please visit this link for package explanations and rates.

Additionally, AAWC Career Center is free to all who are exploring new job opportunities. This resource not only provides the ability for wound care professionals to post resumes and search for new positions, but also includes a "saved search" feature. This functionality allows wound care job seekers to receive daily updates about new jobs that match saved search criteria. In addition, there are resume and cover letter tips, interview strategies, networking advice and negotiating tactics. The AAWC Career Center also can help wound care professionals to advance their careers as it provides free advice about taking a proactive role in annual performance reviews, seeking out promotions, and how to balance work and life.

ABOUT AAWC - AAWC is the largest, not-for-profit membership organization in the United States dedicated to the research and clinical application of evidence-based wound care. As the leader in interdisciplinary wound healing and tissue preservation, AAWC offers membership and accompanying benefits to everyone involved in wound care, including healthcare professionals, patients, lay-caregivers, clinics/facilities, corporations, students, retirees, and advocates.
