

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Allowance and Amount of the Secured Claim..... 1

- A. Introduction and Overview of § 506..... 2
- B. Amount of Secured Claim..... 4
- C. Function of § 506(a): To Determine Secured Creditor Status 5
- D. Bifurcation under § 506..... 6
- E. What Is a Secured Claim? Types of Secured Claims 6
- F. Post-Petition Perfection Issues..... 8
- G. Allowance of a Secured Claim..... 9
- H. Should a Secured Creditor File a Proof of Claim? 11
- I. Valuation..... 12
- J. Interest in Property 14
- K. Limitations on Bifurcation..... 15
 - 1. Bifurcation in Chapter 7..... 16
 - 2. Bifurcation in Chapter 13..... 16
 - 3. Chapter 11 and the Availability of a § 1111(b) Election 17
- L. Section 506(b): Equity Cushions and Secured Creditor Rights There to 17
- M. Allowance of Post-Petition Interest..... 19
- N. Allowance of Reasonable Fees, Costs or Charges Provided Under Loan Agreement or State Law 21
- O. Issues with Allowance of Prepayment Premiums/Yield Maintenance/Make-Whole Provisions..... 21
- P. Avoidance of Lien Because It Is Not an Allowed Claim 23

Chapter 2: Valuation of Collateral25

- A. Valuation Considerations 27
- B. Valuation Basics..... 30
 - 1. Standard of Value 31
 - 2. Premise of Value 32
 - 3. Common Valuation Methodologies..... 34
- C. Proof of Value: Presentation of Valuation Evidence 39
 - 1. Selection of the Appropriate Valuation Witness 39

D. Expert Opinion 42

 1. Fed. R. Evid. 702: Evaluating the Expert’s Qualifications 42

 2. Relevance and Reliability 46

 3. Qualifying the Witness as an Expert..... 47

 4. Challenging the Expert 49

E. Burden of Proof 51

Chapter 3: Preserving and Protecting Collateral and Its Proceeds.....53

A. Collateral Rights as Property Interests Protected
 Under the Constitution 54

B. Pre-Petition Collateral Review: Contemplating a
 Potential Bankruptcy Filing 56

 1. Initial Review 56

 2. Timing Issues..... 57

 3. Potential Preference Concerns 57

 4. Potential Fraudulent Transfer or Fraudulent Conveyance Concerns 59

 5. Forbearance Agreements 60

 6. The Effect of the Termination of a Forbearance Agreement..... 65

 7. The Importance of Perfection..... 65

 8. Intercreditor Agreements..... 66

C. Bankruptcy Code Provisions Affecting a Secured Creditor’s
 Rights in Collateral..... 71

D. Section 501, Rule 3002(a) and Section 506(d): Drafting and Filing Proofs of Claim 71

 1. Section 506(b): Secured Claims During the Pendency of the Bankruptcy Case 76

 2. Sections 362 and 546: Certain Allowed Post-Petition
 Perfection of Collateral 80

 3. Section 552: Post-Petition Effect of Security Interest 82

 4. Section 1141: Preserving Liens upon Confirmation of a
 Plan of Reorganization..... 86

Chapter 4: Adequate Protection91

A. The Context in Which Adequate Protection Arises 93

 1. Section 362: Cause to Lift the Automatic Stay 93

2. Section 363: Use of Collateral.....	93
3. Section 364: Superpriority Post-Petition Financing	94
B. Entitlement to Adequate Protection	95
1. The Interest to Be Protected.....	95
2. Valuing Collateral.....	98
3. Effect of an Equity Cushion.....	100
C. What Constitutes Adequate Protection?	101
1. Cash Payments.....	102
2. Applying Adequate Protection Payments.....	102
3. Replacement Liens.....	103
4. The Indubitable Equivalent.....	103
D. Adequate Protection in Specific Cases	106
1. Single-Asset Real Estate Cases.....	106
2. Chapter 12.....	107
3. Chapter 13.....	108
E. Requesting Adequate Protection	109
1. Lifting the Stay	109
2. Use, Sale and Lease of Collateral.....	109
3. Superpriority Post-Petition Financing.....	110
4. Waiving Adequate Protection	110
F. Section 507: When Adequate Protection Fails	111
1. Interaction Between §§ 507(b) and 503(b)	112
2. When § 507(b) Claims Arise.....	114
3. Litigating § 507(b) Claims.....	115
Chapter 5: Sale, Use or Lease of Collateral	117
A. Use of Collateral	118
1. Use of Collateral Generally	119
2. Use of Cash Collateral.....	119
3. Adequate Protection.....	120
4. Priming Liens	120
B. Sales of Collateral.....	122
1. Ordinary Course of Business	122
2. Sales Outside the Ordinary Course.....	124
3. Sales Free and Clear	127

C. Typical § 363 Sale Process	142
1. Typical Timeline for a § 363 Sale.....	143
2. Typical Solicitation and Auction Procedures for a § 363 Sale.....	143
D. Credit Bidding.....	154
1. Credit Bidding Under a Chapter 11 Plan	155
2. Credit Bidding May Be Denied for Cause.....	156
Chapter 6: Carve-Outs, Surcharge and Priming Liens.....	163
A. Carve-Outs	164
1. When Are Carve-Outs Necessary or Appropriate?	165
2. What Types of Fees and Expenses Are Typically Agreed to in a Carve-Out?.....	166
3. What Do Secured Creditors Typically Get in Return for Carve-Out Allowances?	167
B. Surcharging a Secured Creditor’s Collateral.....	168
C. Priming Liens	170
D. Providing Adequate Protection.....	172
Chapter 7: Avoidance.....	175
A. Strong-Arm Powers.....	176
1. Assuming Hypothetical Statuses.....	176
2. Avoiding Statutory Liens.....	177
3. Asserting the Rights of an Unsecured Creditor	178
B. Avoiding Preferences	179
1. Elements of a Preference.....	179
2. Transfers that Cannot Be Avoided as Preferences.....	180
C. Fraudulent Transfers	183
1. Actual Fraudulent Transfers.....	184
2. Constructive Fraudulent Transfers	184
3. Fraudulent Transfers and Leveraged Buyouts	185
D. Avoiding Unauthorized Post-Petition Transfers.....	186
1. Types of Transfers Avoidable Under § 549.....	186
2. Unavoidable Post-Petition Transfers	186
E. Limitations on Avoidance Powers	188
1. Statute of Limitations.....	188

- 2. Relation Back 188
- 3. Right of Reclamation 189
- 4. Safe Harbors 189
- F. Trustee’s Right to Recover 193
 - 1. Parties from Which the Trustee Can Recover 193
 - 2. Extent of Recovery 194
 - 3. Rights of Transferee After Recovery of an Avoided Transfer 195
- G. Litigating Avoidance Actions 196
 - 1. Adequately Pleaded Complaint 196
 - 2. Right to a Jury Trial 196
 - 3. Constitutional Authority 198
 - 4. Derivative Standing 200
 - 5. Chapter 15 201
 - 6. Disallowing Claims by Holders of Avoidable Transfers 201
- H. Avoidance Actions as an Asset of the Estate 202
 - 1. Liens on Avoidance Actions and Avoidance Action Proceeds 202
 - 2. Transfer of Avoidance Actions 203

Chapter 8: Classification and Treatment of Secured Claims Under Chapter 11 Plans 207

- A. Claim Classification and Pre-Confirmation Issues:
 - “Substantially Similar” Claims 208
- B. Separate Classification: Legitimate Business Reasons 210
 - 1. Separate Classification of Deficiency Claims 210
 - 2. Separate Classification of Claims Guaranteed by a Third Party or Secured by Non-Estate Collateral 212
 - 3. Separate Classification of Claims Subject to Litigation or Setoff 212
 - 4. Separate Classification of Essential Trade Creditors 213
 - 5. Alternative Sources of Payment Affecting Classification 214
- C. Claim Treatment: Fair and Equitable Test 217
 - 1. Cramdown Under § 1129(b) 218
 - 2. Lien Retention and Deferred Cash Payments 219
 - 3. Sale of Collateral 220
 - 4. Indubitable Equivalent of Allowed Secured Claim 221
- D. Plan Interest Rates 224

1. The Formula Approach.....	226
2. Efficient Market Rate Interest.....	227
3. The Coerced Loan Approach	228
4. The Contract Rate Approach.....	228
5. The Cost-of-Funds Approach.....	229
6. Below-Market-Rate Replacement Notes	230
E. Section 1111(b) Elections.....	230
F. Improper Classifications.....	234

Chapter 9: Secured Claims in Consumer Bankruptcies 235

A. Adequate Protection Pending Confirmation of a Chapter 13 Plan	237
1. Payments to the Secured Creditor or Through the Trustee	240
2. The Appropriate Amount of Adequate Protection	241
B. Possession of Property of the Estate and Adequate Protection.....	242
C. Debtor as Trustee Under § 363(e)	244
D. Chapter 13 Plans.....	245
1. Overview of § 1325(a)(5).....	245
2. Acceptance of the Plan	246
3. Surrender of the Collateral.....	247
4. Lien Retention and Deferred Payments	248
5. Equal Payments and Post-Confirmation Adequate Protection.....	250
E. Residential Mortgage Loans	255
1. Nobelman	256
2. Section 506(d) Does Not Allow Stripping of a Wholly Unsecured Lien in Chapter 13	258
3. Chapter 20 Lien-Stripping.....	258
F. Car Loans and § 1325(a)'s Hanging Paragraph.....	260
1. Interest.....	261
2. Surrender	262
3. Negative Equity	263