Halloween events

Oct. 28

Blood Drive

OWASA, Anna Maria's and the American Red Cross will co-sponsor the annual Halloween blood drive at OWASA, 400 Jones Ferry Road, Carrboro, from 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Donors must be at least 17 years old (or 16 with parental consent), weigh at least 110 pounds, be in general good health and have photo identification.

Anna Maria's and OWASA will provide food.

OWASA's Community Room will be festively decorated and staff will be in costume. Donors are invited to join in the fun.

For more information or to schedule an appointment, call 919-537-4370 or email kchapman@owasa.org.

Ghost Hunting Talk

Kala Ambrose, author of "Ghost Hunting North Carolina," will discuss the state's supernatural history and most haunted sites, including those in Chapel Hill and the Triangle, at 7 p.m. at Flyleaf Books, 752 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. Not recommended for children under 12. 919-942-7936, www.flyleafbooks.com.

Costume Party

Southern Village and the Triangle Youth Ballet will present a Candy Land-themed Halloween costume party on Village Green from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. Southern Village will be transformed into Candy Village, with candy-themed activities and a trick-or-treat walk to visit the participating Market Street businesses. Visitors can also vote in the annual Southern Village scarecrow contest. Free; donations of non-perishable foods or cash to the PORCH hunger relief program are requested.
