Steve brings over 20 years of Executive Search and Management Consulting experience to Access Source Group. Prior to owning his own Executive Search practice (Automotive Search Consultants), Steve was employed by Profiles and Management Recruiters. While employed at these companies, he was consistently ranked as one of the top Recruiters in the country. His accomplishments include 4 time Pacesetter Award winner, $2,000,000+ in production achieved, and recognition by his client companies for "Excellence in Customer Service". Steve holds a B.S. in Engineering from Michigan State University and a MBA from the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business.

For the past 12 years he has assisted automotive, transportation and industrial companies in filling critical staffing needs. He specializes in the placement of technical, sales and management professionals, typically located at a Headquarters and/or Tech Center location. Steve provides solutions to his clients' critical staffing problems by identifying, sourcing and retaining top-level talent to remain competitive in today's marketplace. He believes the two main keys to providing this solution include customer service and industry knowledge. Customer service is key, treating his client companies and candidates with the utmost respect helps to develop trust and integrity throughout the hiring process. Understanding the industry; who the players are, what forces are shaping the industry and how this affects his clients and candidates is essential.
