

Our Church Matters

Our Mission: Growing Together in Christ
Through Worship, Fellowship, Witness and Service

Community. Messy. Beautiful. A place to go on Sundays. Inspiring. Boring. Diverse. Making a difference. All of these are ideas that may come to mind when asked to finish the phrase, “Church is....” For many of us reading this newsletter, church is woven into the fabric of our lives. It’s familiar - possibly even comfortable - and is a part of our regular routines. But it’s precisely this familiarity that often keeps us from questioning what church is and what Jesus envisioned it would be. What does church look like when we’re at our best? And, what does it mean in the creeds when we say we believe in “one, holy, catholic and apostolic church”? I hope you’ll join us for worship in May as we explore these questions and more in a series called “Church Is.”

This series will lead up to Pentecost - the day when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit - which falls this year on May 28. Plan to wear red in celebration of the Spirit, which danced like fire upon the disciples gathered in Jerusalem and gave them power to continue the work that Jesus started.

And finally, in case you missed it, I will be starting a 12-week period of renewal (sabbatical) leave beginning Monday, June 12th. Pastor Dick Harden will be on call for pastoral care for much of the summer, and we will have a dynamic line-up of different preachers coming to share their gifts with us in worship. They’ll have the opportunity to choose their favorite biblical stories as part of a fun series called Stories that Stretch Us. I hope you’ll make it a point to join us for worship as often as you can and do the stretching that is such an integral part of growing our “faith muscle”!

Blessings and peace,

Pastor Jen

The Chancel Singers

Who are they?

A very special assortment of gifted singers who are able to paint a canvas with beautiful colorful tones as they tell a story of their love for Jesus Christ.

Get to know who they are and how it is possible for them to produce such a well articulated colorful sound.

You might ask, why are they standing on the steps? They are standing on the steps to be closer to YOU. Their sound can be captured by wonderful microphones and with special care, this helps to deliver those sounds to the ears and hearts of RUMC.

We discovered years ago that singing from the choir loft is difficult. While there, it is hard to hear the sermon, to see the children services, and to see the faces of RUMC.

Stay tuned to the gifts of your friends. Brandon Turner will visit with us on Sunday May 28th and the Chancel Singers will provide the vocal music for Dulaney Memorial Gardens services on Memorial Day on May 29th at 10 am.

Your friend and servant,
Bill Myers

Registration is now open for Camp Joy, which will be held July 9-15 and July 16-22. Camp Joy is an opportunity for youth to serve in mission in the Appalachian region of Maryland, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia by providing home repair to those who do not have the means to take on the repairs themselves. Beyond repairing homes, this mission ministry provides a transformative, immersive community experience amid God's beautiful creation, demonstrating how our lives and faith intersect.

We now have several ways to join us virtually, including Zoom, Facebook Live, and a livestream that appears at the bottom of our worship page: <http://rumcweb.org/event/2021-05-23-1000-am-service/> This is the easiest way to view the service and also provides the highest quality viewing experience - especially for those with low internet speeds.

We also have YouTube account - https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCzltzPeTDuFxeJv_EJpgjgQ for our services if you miss one, you can pull it up at this link.
