Lesson Summary:

In Judges 16:23-30, we read about a man named Samson. Earlier, in Judges 13-15, we learn Samson was a judge who led the Israelites and delivered them from the Philistines. He was the strongest man alive and battled the Philistines through God's power. His strength wasn't his own. It came from God, but Samson began to think his strength was from himself and not from God. When this pride came in, he began to make many mistakes. He didn't listen to God or obey the Law. Samson began to look to himself instead of looking toward God. He suffered many consequences as a result of his sins against God. In 1 Samuel 16:23-30, Samson was blind and living in a Philistine prison. Samson prayed to God in the prison, and God heard him. God had mercy and forgave Samson for the sinful things he had done. God still used Samson to bring glory to Himself even though Samson had messed up many times. We can know God is good and will forgive us of our sins when we ask Him, as seen in Psalm 86:5. God is faithful and hears our prayers. Knowing He will always hear us, we can go to God all the time. What a faithful and forgiving God we serve!
