Lesson Adventure

The TRUTH about prayer -
2 Chronicles 7:11-22

Lesson Summary- Expedition Overview

This passage in 2 Chronicles happens after the completion of the temple by King Solomon. In 2 Chronicles 6, Solomon prays to God, asking God to hear the prayers of His people. Solomon asks God for mercy, forgiveness, and for Israel to be restored. In 2 Chronicles 7, God responds to Solomon's prayer in a very personal and amazing way. God began by filling the temple with His glory, and then he appeared to Solomon at night, giving him a message. God's response includes promises of blessings and judgment depending on Israel's faithfulness to God. God reassures Solomon that He heard his prayer and that the temple is where God's presence will be. God hears the prayers of His people, especially when the prayers are spoken in humility and faith. God is merciful and slow to anger. Even after judgment and sin, we can go to God for forgiveness. Praise be to God for always hearing our prayers and answering according to His perfect will.
