Bible Passage Judges 13-16

God's Power Truth

God is powerful and His plan is good.

Hero Truth I Can Live Out

I can trust God because He loves me.

Today's Bible Hero Adventure

Today we learn about a Bible hero named Samson. When his mom was pregnant, God told her never to cut his hair because her son would be set apart and God would use him to help His people. The Israelites had disobeyed God and were under the rule of the Philistines, but God planned to use Samson to bring victory.

As Samson grew older, God gave him great strength to do amazing things like tearing apart a lion, tying torches to foxes' tails, and winning battles against men. His strength wasn't from himself but from God, who had a big plan for him. Still, Samson was far from perfect. His girlfriend Delilah was paid by the Philistines to learn the secret of his strength. After lying to her three times, Samson finally told her the truth. While he slept, she cut off his hair, and when the Philistines came, Samson had no strength to fight them. They captured him, blinded him, and brought him into their temple.

It might have seemed like all hope was gone, but Samson prayed and asked God to give him strength one more time. God answered, and when Samson pushed against the pillars, the whole temple crashed down, destroying the Philistines inside. God is the ultimate hero, but He used Samson to bring victory when he trusted Him.

Hero Training at Home

While your child is playing with blocks or legos, talk about our lesson and work together to build two pillars like the pillars Samson stood between. Let your child knock the pillars down like Samson did, saying, "God made Samson strong and God makes me strong!"

God's Power Bible Memory Verse

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart."
Proverbs 3:5
