Trail Stop Recap

Today, as we hunt for the Promised King, we learn about a time when Jesus entered a room where His disciples were gathered. It was the third day after Jesus had died on the cross and had been buried in a tomb and now Jesus had risen from the dead. He had already appeared to some of the disciples, and then He came into the room where they were all together. When the disciples saw Him, they were shocked and did not fully understand what was happening. Jesus told them not to be afraid. He showed them His wounded hands and feet. The disciples thought He might be a ghost, but it was truly Jesus standing right in front of them! To show them He was really alive, Jesus ate some food. Then Jesus reminded them of what God had said through the prophets hundreds of years earlier.

God had promised that Jesus would rise and be alive again on the third day—and that is exactly what happened. Because of Jesus' death and resurrection, He has made a way for our sins to be forgiven and for all who put their trust in Him to have eternal life with Him forever.

Continuing on the Trail at Home

Read Luke 24:36-49 from a Bible or children's Bible together as a family. What do you think it would have been like to be in the room with the disciples when Jesus appeared to them? Why is it so important that Jesus died and rose again? Who did Jesus come to save? How can you celebrate Jesus and tell others about Him?

Memory Verse on the Trail

"But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

Acts 1:8
