I can trust Jesus and follow Him.

Trail Stop Recap

This year at Impact Kids, we have been on the hunt for the Promised King. Jesus is our King—the One God promised to send to earth and the one who will one day make all things new. In the beginning, God’s creation was perfect, but sin broke that perfect creation. The people God loved most could no longer live with Him in the home He made. But this was not the end of His story. God made a promise to send a Savior. Jesus was with God in creation, and out of His great love for us, He came down from heaven to live a perfect life. He died on the cross and rose again on the third day, making a way for our sins to be forgiven so we could once again live with Him.

In the last book of the Bible, God promises to create a new heaven and a new earth—a perfect home where all who trust in Him will live with Him forever. Jesus came to be our Savior and restore our relationship with God. One day, He will return and bring all who trust in Him into this new and perfect home. There will be no more sin, no more sickness, and nothing to fear. There will be no more sadness or pain. But best of all, God Himself will live with us forever. Thank you, Jesus, for the hope we have in You and for our forever home with You.

Continuing on the Trail at Home

Talk with your child about the hope we have in Jesus and our forever home with Him. What does it mean to trust Jesus and live with Him forever? Do they have any questions? Take some time to worship Jesus together as a family, praising Him for the hope we have in Him.

Memory Verse on the Trail

“Neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Romans 8:39
