Truth Discovered

God calls us to know Him and to follow Him.

Truth in Action

I can trust Jesus and follow Him.

Discovery Recap

Saul was king over Israel, but he had disobeyed the Lord. God told Samuel that He had chosen a new king and sent him to the town of Bethlehem to meet the family of a man named Jesse. One of Jesse's sons would one day become Israel's next king.

When Samuel saw Jesse's older sons, some of them looked like they could be a king. But God reminded Samuel that people look at outward appearance while the Lord looks at the heart. God had not chosen any of the seven sons Samuel met and Jesse's youngest son, David, was out caring for the family's sheep. When David arrived, God told Samuel that David was the one He had chosen, and Samuel anointed him.

David may not have seemed like the obvious choice to be king, but God knew David's heart and had a purpose for him. David would not be a perfect king, but many years later, Jesus would be born into David's family. Jesus is our perfect King who came to rescue us from the darkness of sin and bring us into His light forever.

Discover More at Home

When other people looked at David, they saw the youngest brother and a shepherd, but God saw David's heart. Talk with your child about the difference between what we look like on the outside and what is happening in our hearts. Pray together and ask God to help you have hearts that love Him, trust Him, and want to follow Him.

Light for the Journey
