Lesson Adventure

The TRUTH about God making all things new Revelation 21:1-27

Lesson Summary- Expedition Overview

Revelation completes the story that was started in the book of Genesis. The word "revelation" means "unveiling." This book pulls back the veil by letting us see Jesus Christ glorified in Heaven. As we learned earlier, the Gospels teach us about the first coming of Jesus, when He was born in Bethlehem. Revelation focuses on the second coming of Christ and the fulfillment of the plans and promises God has made. In Revelation 21, we see a picture of the New Jerusalem, which is a part of the New Heaven and New Earth. Here, Jesus will be living among all believers, who have put their trust in Him. He will make all things new. There will be no sickness, sadness, death, or things that are now found on Earth. In fact, there will be no moon or sun because the light of God's glory will provide the light. What a beautiful and glorious future we can look forward to, spending all eternity in Heaven with God!
