A Fall of PRAISE

Lesson Summary:

Psalm 103 praises God for His great mercy, love, and forgiveness. As the leaves change and fall brings a new season, we can remember that God can change our hearts when we turn to Him. Psalm 103 reminds us that God is kind and forgiving. As a loving father cares for his children, God lovingly cares for His people. We see a beautiful picture of this in Luke 15:11–24. Jesus told a story about a father and his two sons. The younger son took his share of his father's property, left home, and foolishly wasted everything he had. When he had nothing left, he realized how wrong he had been. He remembered his father's goodness and decided to turn around and go home. He was ready to confess his sin and ask for mercy. While the son was still far away, his father saw him and ran to meet him! The son confessed that he had sinned, but his father welcomed him with love and compassion. He gave him a robe, a ring, and sandals and prepared a joyful celebration because his son had returned. Just as fall is a season of change, repentance means turning away from our sin and turning back to God. The loving father in Jesus' story helps us understand the compassion and mercy described in Psalm 103. God is ready to forgive when we repent and turn to Him. What a loving and forgiving God we can praise in every season!

Series Bible Verse:

Psalm 107:1
"Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good;
His love endures forever."

Questions:

1. What does Psalm 103 teach about God?
2. What did the younger son do when he realized he had sinned?
3. How does God respond to us when we repent and turn back to Him, based on the passage in Luke 15?
