Frosty Passage:

Hope in the Frost: 1 Samuel 1

The Story So Far:

In 1 Samuel 1, Hannah loved the Lord very much. She was sad because she wanted to be a mother, but she could not have a child. Instead of becoming angry or bitter, Hannah prayed and poured out her heart to God. She trusted the Lord and put her hope in Him. While worshipping at the tabernacle, Hannah asked God for a son and promised that she would dedicate him to the Lord. God heard Hannah's prayers and blessed her with a son named Samuel.

Samuel was a very special child because God had chosen him for an important purpose. He would grow up to become the last judge of Israel and a faithful leader for God's people. Hannah kept her promise and dedicated Samuel to serve the Lord. Sometimes life can feel cold and difficult, like a journey through a frozen kingdom. But Hannah's story reminds us that God is always at work, even when we have to wait. God had a plan for Hannah and a plan for Samuel. Just as God chose Samuel for a special purpose, He has a purpose for us, too. We are chosen by God, and we can trust Him to guide us through every season of life.
