IMPACT GROUP QUESTIONS

KEY PASSAGE: REVELATION 17:1-18:3

Opening: What truths impacted you most from the sermon/passage? Don't marvel at the Great Harlot, the world's replacement for Jesus. Worship Jesus without distraction; Worship the King of Kings who is moving even when it appears that evil is winning the day; Celebrate that God is so in charge that He will cause evil to destroy evil. We will hear "Fallen is Babylon the Great," and it will be at the hands of the Beast!

INFORM THE HEAD / STIR THE HEART

1. From 17:1-6, describe the Great Prostitute. From what is written on her forehead, what can be deduced about what she represents?

2. Why do you think John marveled over the Great Prostitute when she was defined by pure evil?

3. Who will marvel at the Beast? Why?

4. What additional details do we learn about the Beast from verses 8-14?

5. The phrase, "This calls for a mind of wisdom," is repeated several times through these judgments. Why do you think John, through the inspiration of the Spirit, keeps reminding us of this?

6. What is the final end of the Great Prostitute? Why is it significant that her end is at the hand of the Beast and the ten horns?

7. What insight does this passage give you in understanding that we can't always see the whole picture?

8. From Revelation 18:1-3, how is God's holiness and glory displayed?

9. What can you focus on from this week's passage to help you worship rather than worry?
