Jacob and Esau - Genesis 25:19-34

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

Isaac and Rebekah were unable to have children. So, knowing of the promise God made to Abraham, Isaac prayed to the Lord asking God to bless them with children. God answered Isaac's prayer, and she became pregnant with twins. During her pregnancy, the babies seemed to struggle with each other, so she asked the Lord why this was happening. God told her the boys would continue to struggle against each other for the rest of their lives. Jacob and Esau would each be the leader of nations that would oppose each other. God chose the younger son, Jacob, to receive the promised blessings. Jacob most likely knew of the promise, yet still chose to trick his brother out of his birthright.

BOARDING PASS CODE WORDS

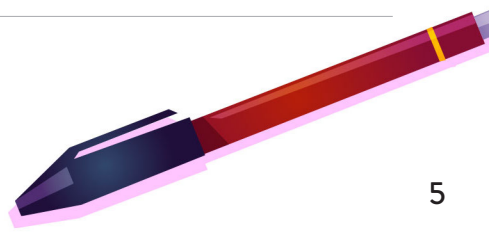

As believers in Jesus, God chose us just as He chose Jacob... according to His good plan.

Jacob Takes Esau's Blessing - Genesis 27

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

God had chosen Jacob to receive the promised blessing, yet Isaac favored his older son, Esau. He wanted Esau to receive the blessing instead. Isaac was blind, ill, and close to passing away. He asked Esau to bring him some food so he could give him the blessing. Rebekah heard this plan, so she asked Jacob to trick Isaac by pretending to be Esau. Jacob agreed to this deception, so he pretended to be Esau by dressing like him and bringing his father food that Esau would bring. Isaac fell for this trick and accidentally gave the birthright blessing to Jacob instead of Esau. Esau responded in anger by threatening Jacob, so Rebekah told Jacob to flee. Even in all this, God was in full control and working things out according to His plan.

Jacob Marries - Genesis 29:1-30

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

Jacob left his home and journeyed east. While there, he met his mother's relatives and fell in love with Rachel. In the past chapter, Jacob tricked his brother to receive the promised blessing. In this chapter, Jacob was tricked by his future father in law. Jacob loved Rachel and worked seven years to marry her. After this time was up Jacob was tricked into marrying Rachel's older sister, Leah. Eventually he was able to marry Rachel, whom he loved. God had made a promise to Abraham and would fulfill the promise He made. God is faithful and was with Jacob as He is with His children today.

IN FLIGHT VERSE

“Then Laban said to him, ‘You are my own flesh and blood.’”

Jacob Returns to Bethel - Genesis 35:1-20, 27-29

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

God called Jacob to return to Bethel in chapter 28. Jacob failed to obey the Lord quickly and faced many consequences as a result of his disobedience. Before they returned to the land, he and his family needed to get rid of the false idols they had. Once they returned to Bethel, God once again stated the promise He had made would be fulfilled. Jacob had another son, Benjamin, who was an answer to Rachel's prayer for a second son. Rachel passed away after giving birth. Jacob returned home in time to see his father, Isaac, before he passed away. God made a promise to Abraham, and in this chapter we see how God is faithful to keep the promises He makes.

Joseph's Dreams - Genesis 37:1-11

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

In Genesis 37:1-11, Joseph is introduced as a faithful and obedient son. Jacob loved Joseph dearly and blessed him with a beautiful robe. This made Joseph's brothers very angry and jealous of him. Joseph had two dreams which showed God's plan to have Joseph rule over his family. These dreams made his brothers even more mad, so they made a plan to get rid of Joseph. Their actions further showed they were not fit to serve to lead God's people, but Joseph was faithful to God throughout all the trials he walked through. God's ways and plans are better than ours. We can praise God for knowing what is best for us in our lives.

Joseph Sold Into Slavery - Genesis 37:12-36

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

In Genesis 37:12-36, our story of Joseph picks up where we left off last week. Jacob asked his son Joseph to go check on his brothers who were watching over their sheep. While Joseph was checking on his brothers, they came up with a plan to get rid of him. They threw Joseph in a well with no water. When the brothers saw some Ishmaelite people who were on their way to Egypt, they sold Joseph to them. Joseph's brothers didn't want to get in trouble, so they lied to their dad, Jacob, saying Joseph had been killed by an animal. Jacob was brokenhearted and mourned for Joseph. Meanwhile, Joseph was sold to one of Pharaoh's officials, Potiphar. This situation seemed awful; however, God was using it for His good. We can trust in God at all times, not just when things are going well, but also when things are difficult and we don't understand the plan.

Joseph in Potiphar's House - Genesis 39:1-20

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

In Genesis 39:1-21, Joseph is now in Egypt after being sold by his brothers. God was with Joseph, so he thrived in the household of Potiphar so much so that Joseph was put in charge of everything in Potiphar's household. While in Potiphar's house, Joseph was tempted to sin against God with Potiphar's wife. He was faithfully obedient to God as he refused to sin against Him. Joseph was falsely accused by Potiphar's wife. Even though Joseph was completely innocent, he was thrown into prison by Potiphar. Joseph was not alone as God never left him.

Joseph in Prison - Genesis 39:21-40:23

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

In Genesis 39:21-40:23, we read about what happened after Joseph had been falsely accused and thrown into prison. However, Joseph was not alone, God was with him. God blessed Joseph while in prison through Joseph being put in charge of the prison by the warden. Joseph continued to trust in the promise God made to him early in his life that Joseph would eventually be prosperous. The evidence of Joseph's trust in God was seen when he continued to interpret dreams for the Pharaoh's cupbearer and baker. Both the baker and cupbearer had been thrown into prison as well when Pharaoh became upset with them. After God helped Joseph to interpret the dreams, indeed, everything Joseph said would happen did. Even while Joseph was in prison, he had faith in God and waited upon Him.

Pharaoh's Dreams - Genesis 41:1-40

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

In Genesis 41:1-40, Joseph was still in prison. God allowed Pharaoh to have dreams that God used to bring Joseph out of prison and into the palace. These dreams greatly upset Pharaoh, and he was unable to find anyone in Egypt to tell him what they meant. Then the cupbearer remembered Joseph in prison who had interpreted dreams for him. Joseph was brought before Pharaoh to interpret the dreams through God's help. God told Joseph that the dreams predicted 7 years of a great harvest followed by 7 years of famine. Joseph said a wise man would need to be in charge of managing the harvest so Egypt would be prepared for the famine. Pharaoh was so pleased with Joseph that he put him in charge of managing all of this. Joseph was made the third most powerful person in all of Egypt. Joseph trusted that God reigned over all and would keep His promises.

First Journey to Egypt - Genesis 42

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

After the seven years of plenty, the famine came. Jacob sent 10 of his sons to Egypt to buy food because he heard they had supplies. Jacob didn't want to send Benjamin in order to keep him safe. Joseph recognized his brothers when they arrived and saw the dreams from God start to be fulfilled when they bowed down before him. Joseph accused them of being spies and had them put in prison for three days until they would bring Benjamin back with them. Joseph kept Simeon and sent the rest back to retrieve Benjamin. This was a test to see if they were the honest men they claimed to be. When they returned home, Jacob was crushed to hear Simeon had been taken and Benjamin would have to make the next trip. Jacob couldn't bear to lose his youngest son, so he told the other sons it wouldn't be possible for Benjamin to go to Egypt. Jacob and the rest of his sons were sad and didn't realize what God was doing at this time. God was working all things out to protect His people for His glory.

Second Journey to Egypt - Genesis 43

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

In Genesis 43, the food supplies had run out again due to the famine. Jacob finally asked his sons to return to Egypt to get more supplies. Judah promised to guard Benjamin with his life on the journey back to Egypt. Jacob finally gave his permission for all of his sons to return to Egypt for food so they wouldn't starve. Simeon was brought out to be with the rest of his brothers upon their arrival. The dream God gave Joseph many years before was fulfilled when all of his brothers bowed before him. Joseph wept at the sight of his youngest brother, Benjamin. Joseph didn't look to punish his brothers for what they had done. He trusted God was working all things out according to His plan and the promises He made.

The Final Test - Genesis 44

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

In chapter 44, Joseph's brothers had still not apologized to God over their treatment and sins toward Joseph. There was one final test given in this chapter to encourage his brothers to repent from these sins. All of Joseph's brothers left joyfully for home with their bags stuffed full of supplies and food. Joseph asked his steward to put his silver cup into Benjamin's bag before they began their journey. After they had traveled just outside the city, Joseph's steward and guard caught up to them. They asked for the thief who had stolen the cup. The brothers were so sure they hadn't taken anything that they said if the cup was found, that brother could be killed and the rest would become slaves. When the cup was found in Benjamin's bag, Joseph's brothers showed true compassion and grief. When they were brought before Joseph, they were grieved and admitted all the past sin they had kept hidden that God had brought to light. Judah showed true repentance when he was willing to take Benjamin's place.

Joseph, the Wise Ruler - Genesis 47

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

In Genesis 47, once Joseph's family all arrived in Egypt, Pharaoh gave them a great area of land near Joseph. Some of his brothers were put in charge of Pharaoh's livestock. Joseph was wise in how he ruled in Egypt during the famine. Many people in Egypt came to Joseph for help. He accepted money, livestock, and land as payment for food. Eventually Pharaoh owned all the land of Egypt besides the land the priests owned. God blessed the Israelites in the land of Egypt. The Israelites grew and became a great nation according to the promise God had made years earlier. This entire chapter shows how God cared for His people as He promised He would.

God Intended it for Good - Genesis 50

FLIGHT OVERVIEW

In the last chapter of Genesis, Jacob passed away which brought fear to Joseph's brothers. They thought since Jacob had died, now Joseph would punish his brothers for their past sins toward him. Joseph reassured his brothers God was working in all this. God used these things they meant for harm to bring good to the nation of Israel. Before Joseph died in Egypt, he reminded the Israelites of God's promise to have His people living in the promised land of Canaan. Joseph asked to be buried back in the promised land.
