SERMON NOTES

1. Do you ever find it difficult to hear God speaking to you?
2. Ways that can help to know if God is speaking:
 - a) Does our thinking correspond with God's Word?
 - b) Do our motives correspond with God's word?
 - c) Has God opened the door to what we perceive could be His will?
 - d) Has a trusted brother or sister in Christ confirmed our thoughts?
 - e) Do we have peace in our hearts?
3. The disciples did not understand the parable at first. How does that shape our view on growing in our walk with Jesus?
4. When casting seeds, Jesus notes that seeds will not take root in certain soil, which is because of Jesus and not us. How should that comfort us?
5. Jesus said that if the seed (Word of God) takes root the seed will grow and bear fruit. What opportunities is God giving us to bear fruit? Do we see a need? Are we praying about those opportunities (i.e. home, work, school, ball games, neighborhood, grocery store[?])? How can God use our gifts to bear fruit? How can God use or small groups to bear fruit?

Donations in memory of Susie Kopf, by a request from the family, may be sent to Meadowbrook Church of Christ.

Thank You: The family of Maxine Crawford and especially Emily (her daughter) would like to thank everyone in the church family for all they have done for her during her recent illness and during her time here at Meadowbrook. She has belonged to this church since the early 60's so had made many good lifelong friends. All your help and kindness to do anything to help Maxine or Emily can never be thanked for enough. Emily wants to thank all but especially Roy and Susan Kellum, Joe and Sharon Belew, and Barbrea Jochimsen for all they have done for her mother.
