Questions for Reflection

1. Have we been looking for a positive experience of Jesus or for Jesus himself (Hint: While they aren't mutually exclusive there is a slight distinction)? What are the ramifications?
2. Do you ever feel disconnected from Jesus? How can being desperate for Jesus help us to be connected? What can we learn from comparing the crowds to the lady being healed as well as the faith of Jairus?
3. What's the hardest part about being interrupted? Could it be that we feel like we're losing control?
4. How should it shape our lives when we truly understand we are in God's family?
5. With the rise of technology, ironically, we are becoming more isolated. How can our desperation for Jesus help others make a connection to Jesus (Even when we don't feel like it)? Dinner? Lunch? Coffee? Encouraging messages? Card?
