“Provision in Hard Times” 1 Samuel 21: 1-22; 5 Pastor Clay Smith

· When have fear or desperation led you to make decisions you later regretted?
What can we learn from David’s flawed responses in this chapter about God’s faithfulness even when we act foolishly?

· How does it impact your view of God to know that He provides not because we are faithful, but because He is gracious? Can you recall a time when God met you in a place of deep need despite your mistakes or sin?

· What does “tasting and seeing that the Lord is good” look like in a season of hardship? How can we practically reorient our hearts toward God’s grace instead of spiraling into self-pity or panic?
