FAMILY WORSHIP -
(Last Sunday of Month)

Welcome to Northway
Community Church

This is the Lord's place, and all who are seeking Him are welcome! We strive to make a relationship with God as intelligent as science, as appealing as art, as vital as a good day's work, as intimate as a healthy home, as inspiring as genuine love, and as redeeming as God's grace!

Giving is an Act of Worship

Northway Community Church believes giving to your local church should be a planned and willful act of worship. Normally, we do not take up an offering as part of our worship services. Instead, we have an offering box located on the desk near the front door. Gifts to Northway (a non-profit corporation) qualify as tax deductible gifts. If you would like credit for your gift in your name and receive a contribution statement at year end, simply fill out and use our contribution envelopes as a means of depositing your gift into our offering box. Gifts to Northway are an act of worship between you and the Lord. As such, only a few from our accounting department know the giving records of our families. We do not want knowledge of contributions to impact or sway our staff's effectiveness in ministering to the body.

A SPIRITUAL LEGACY

General Douglas MacArthur left a spiritual legacy to his son, Arthur—a father's prayer he wrote in the Philippines during the desperate, early days of the war in the Pacific. Major General Courtney Whitney, Douglas MacArthur's biographer and confidant, said that the family repeated the General's prayer many times during their early morning devotions. It is excellent, and especially appropriate for our Father's Day emphasis. Please apply it to both sons and daughters. It reads as follows:

- Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.
- Build me a son whose wishes will not take the place of deeds; a son who will know Thee, and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.
- Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail.
- Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high, a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men, one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past.
- And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, and the meekness of true strength.
- Then I, his father, will dare to whisper, "I have not lived in vain."

--Douglas MacArthur
