Chinese New Year: New Year, New You

By Zelda Cheung, February 22, 2026

So the Israelites who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the unclean practices of their Gentile neighbours in order to seek the Lord, the God of Israel. For seven days they celebrated with joy the Festival of Unleavened Bread, because the Lord had filled them with joy by changing the attitude of the king of Assyria so that he assisted them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra 6:21-22 NIV

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith.

Hebrews 12:1-2 NIV

Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, some for honourable use, some for dishonourable. Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonourable, he will be a vessel for honourable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work.

2 Timothy 2:20-21 ESV

To be set apart for God, we need to pause and intentionally involve God in our decisions and actions. Here are two guiding questions to help us be mindful of God and His ways:

1. Would God be pleased ?
2. How would God want me to be ?

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. God is inviting you to partner with Him. What are some ways you can partner with God for His Kingdom?
2. What specific changes can you implement this year to help you be set apart for God?
