

Romans 8: No Separation

By Tim LaTour, May 24, 2026

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:35-39 NIV

Condemnation is silenced ✓ .

Separation is impossible ✓ .

The love of God is unbreakable ✓ .

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Where in your life are you most tempted to believe that trouble, hardship, failure, or fear has separated you from the love of God?
2. What would change this week if you truly lived convinced that Christ's love is holding onto you, rather than the other way around?
