Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Faithful in Evangelism
2 Corinthians 2:12-16

When I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, even though a door was opened for me in the Lord, my spirit was not at rest because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I took leave of them and went on to Macedonia.

— vv 12-13

But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere. For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life.

— vv 14-16

The background image is a dark, atmospheric landscape. It features a path or road that leads from the foreground into the distance, flanked by what appears to be a body of water or a misty field. In the far distance, there are low hills or mountains. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds, creating a somber and mysterious mood. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues, greys, and blacks, with some lighter tones in the mist and the distant horizon.

Who is sufficient for these things!
