

Psalms
OF DAVID

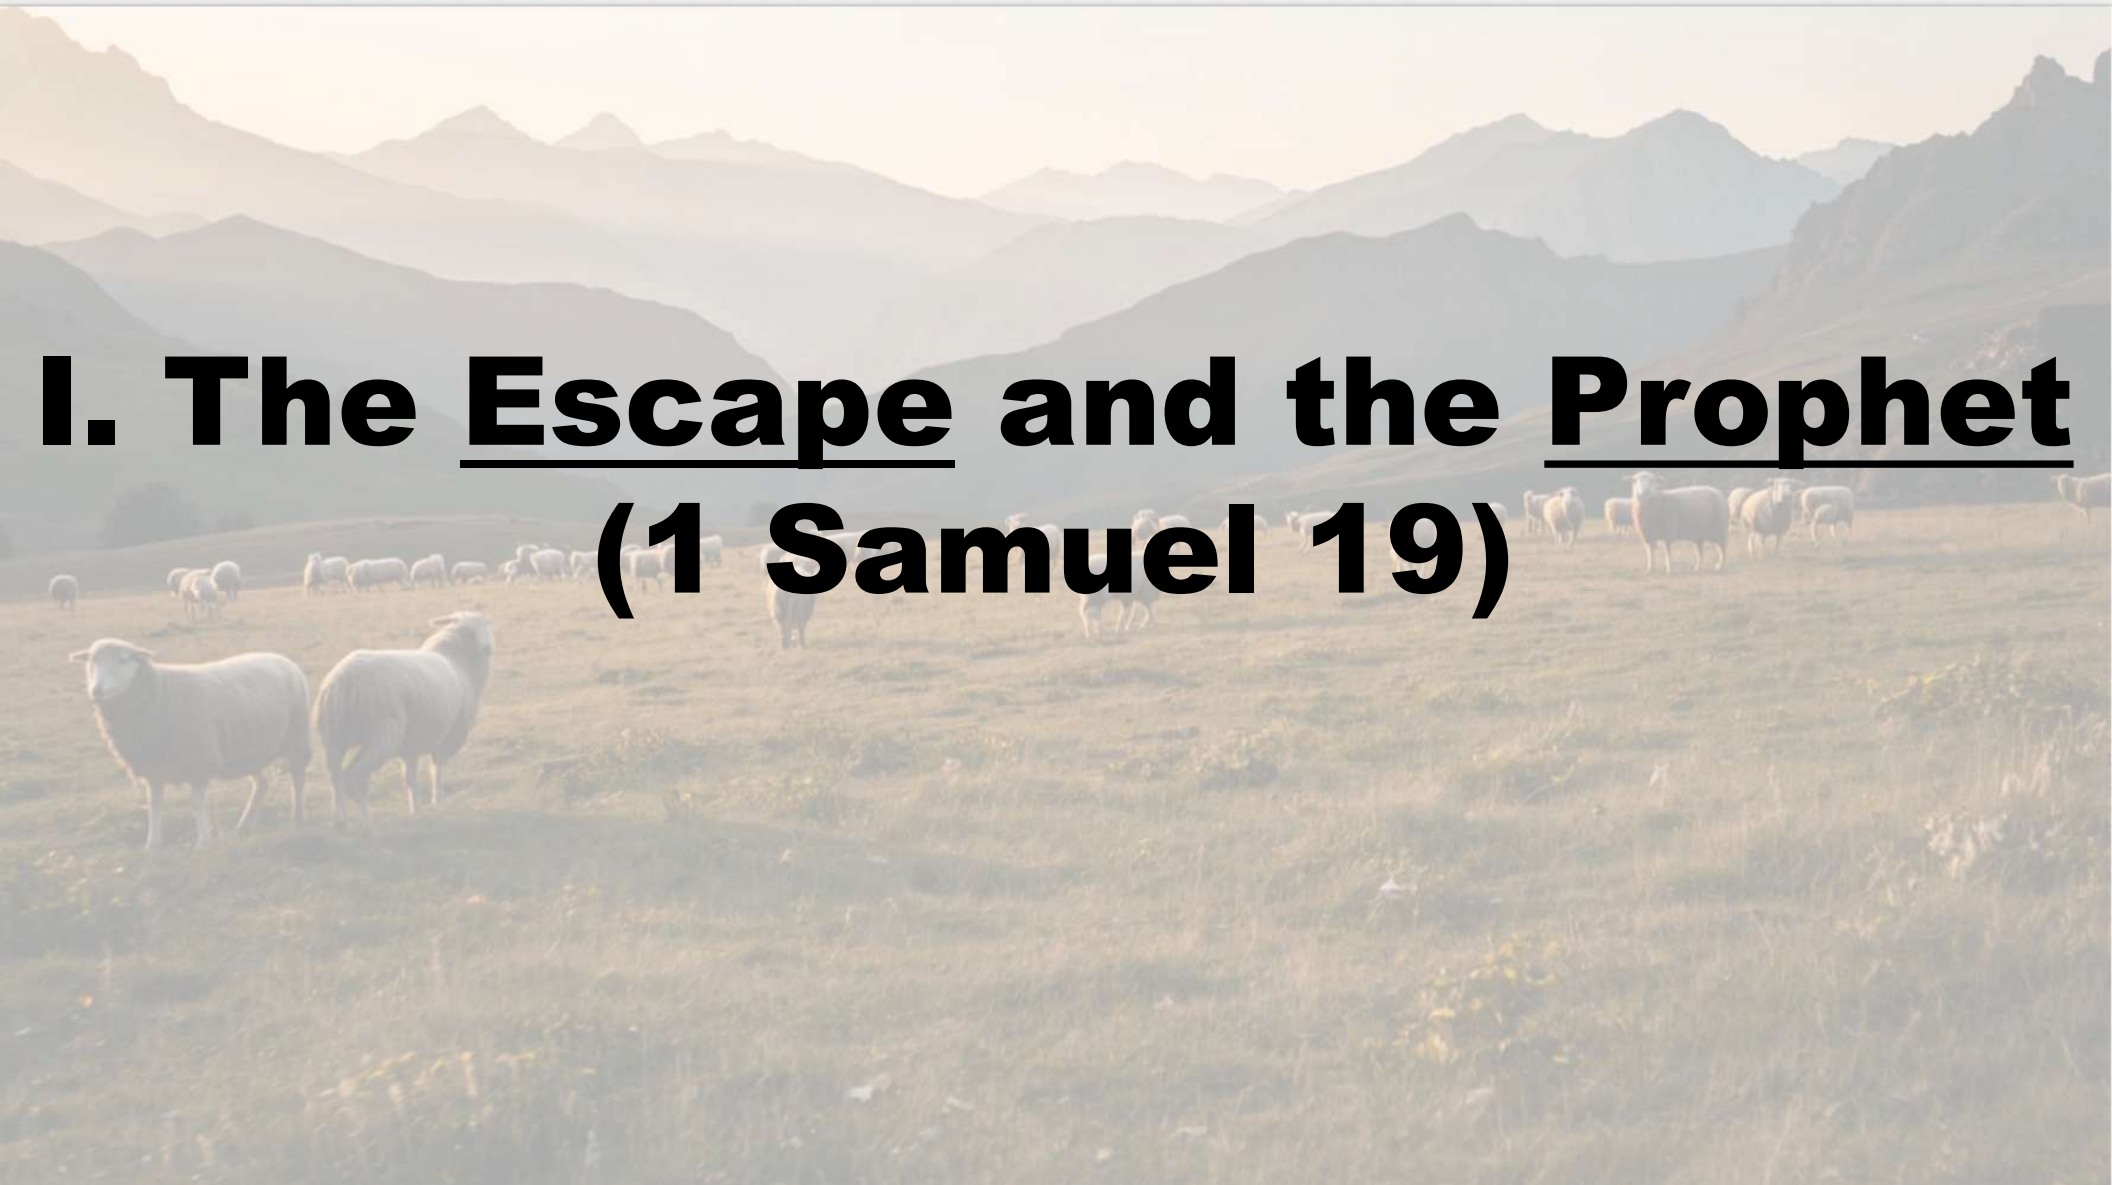

A landscape photograph showing a herd of sheep in a grassy field in the foreground. In the background, there are several layers of mountains, creating a sense of depth. The lighting is soft, suggesting either dawn or dusk. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.

Reflecting Christ in our lives will make others uncomfortable.

A soft-focus background image of a pastoral landscape. In the foreground, a flock of sheep is grazing in a grassy field. In the distance, a range of mountains is visible under a hazy, golden sky, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall tone is peaceful and serene.

When surrounded by evil, God is our only source for perfect love and faithfulness.

I. The Escape and the Prophet (1 Samuel 19)

Prophecy (Heb) “naba’/nabaim”

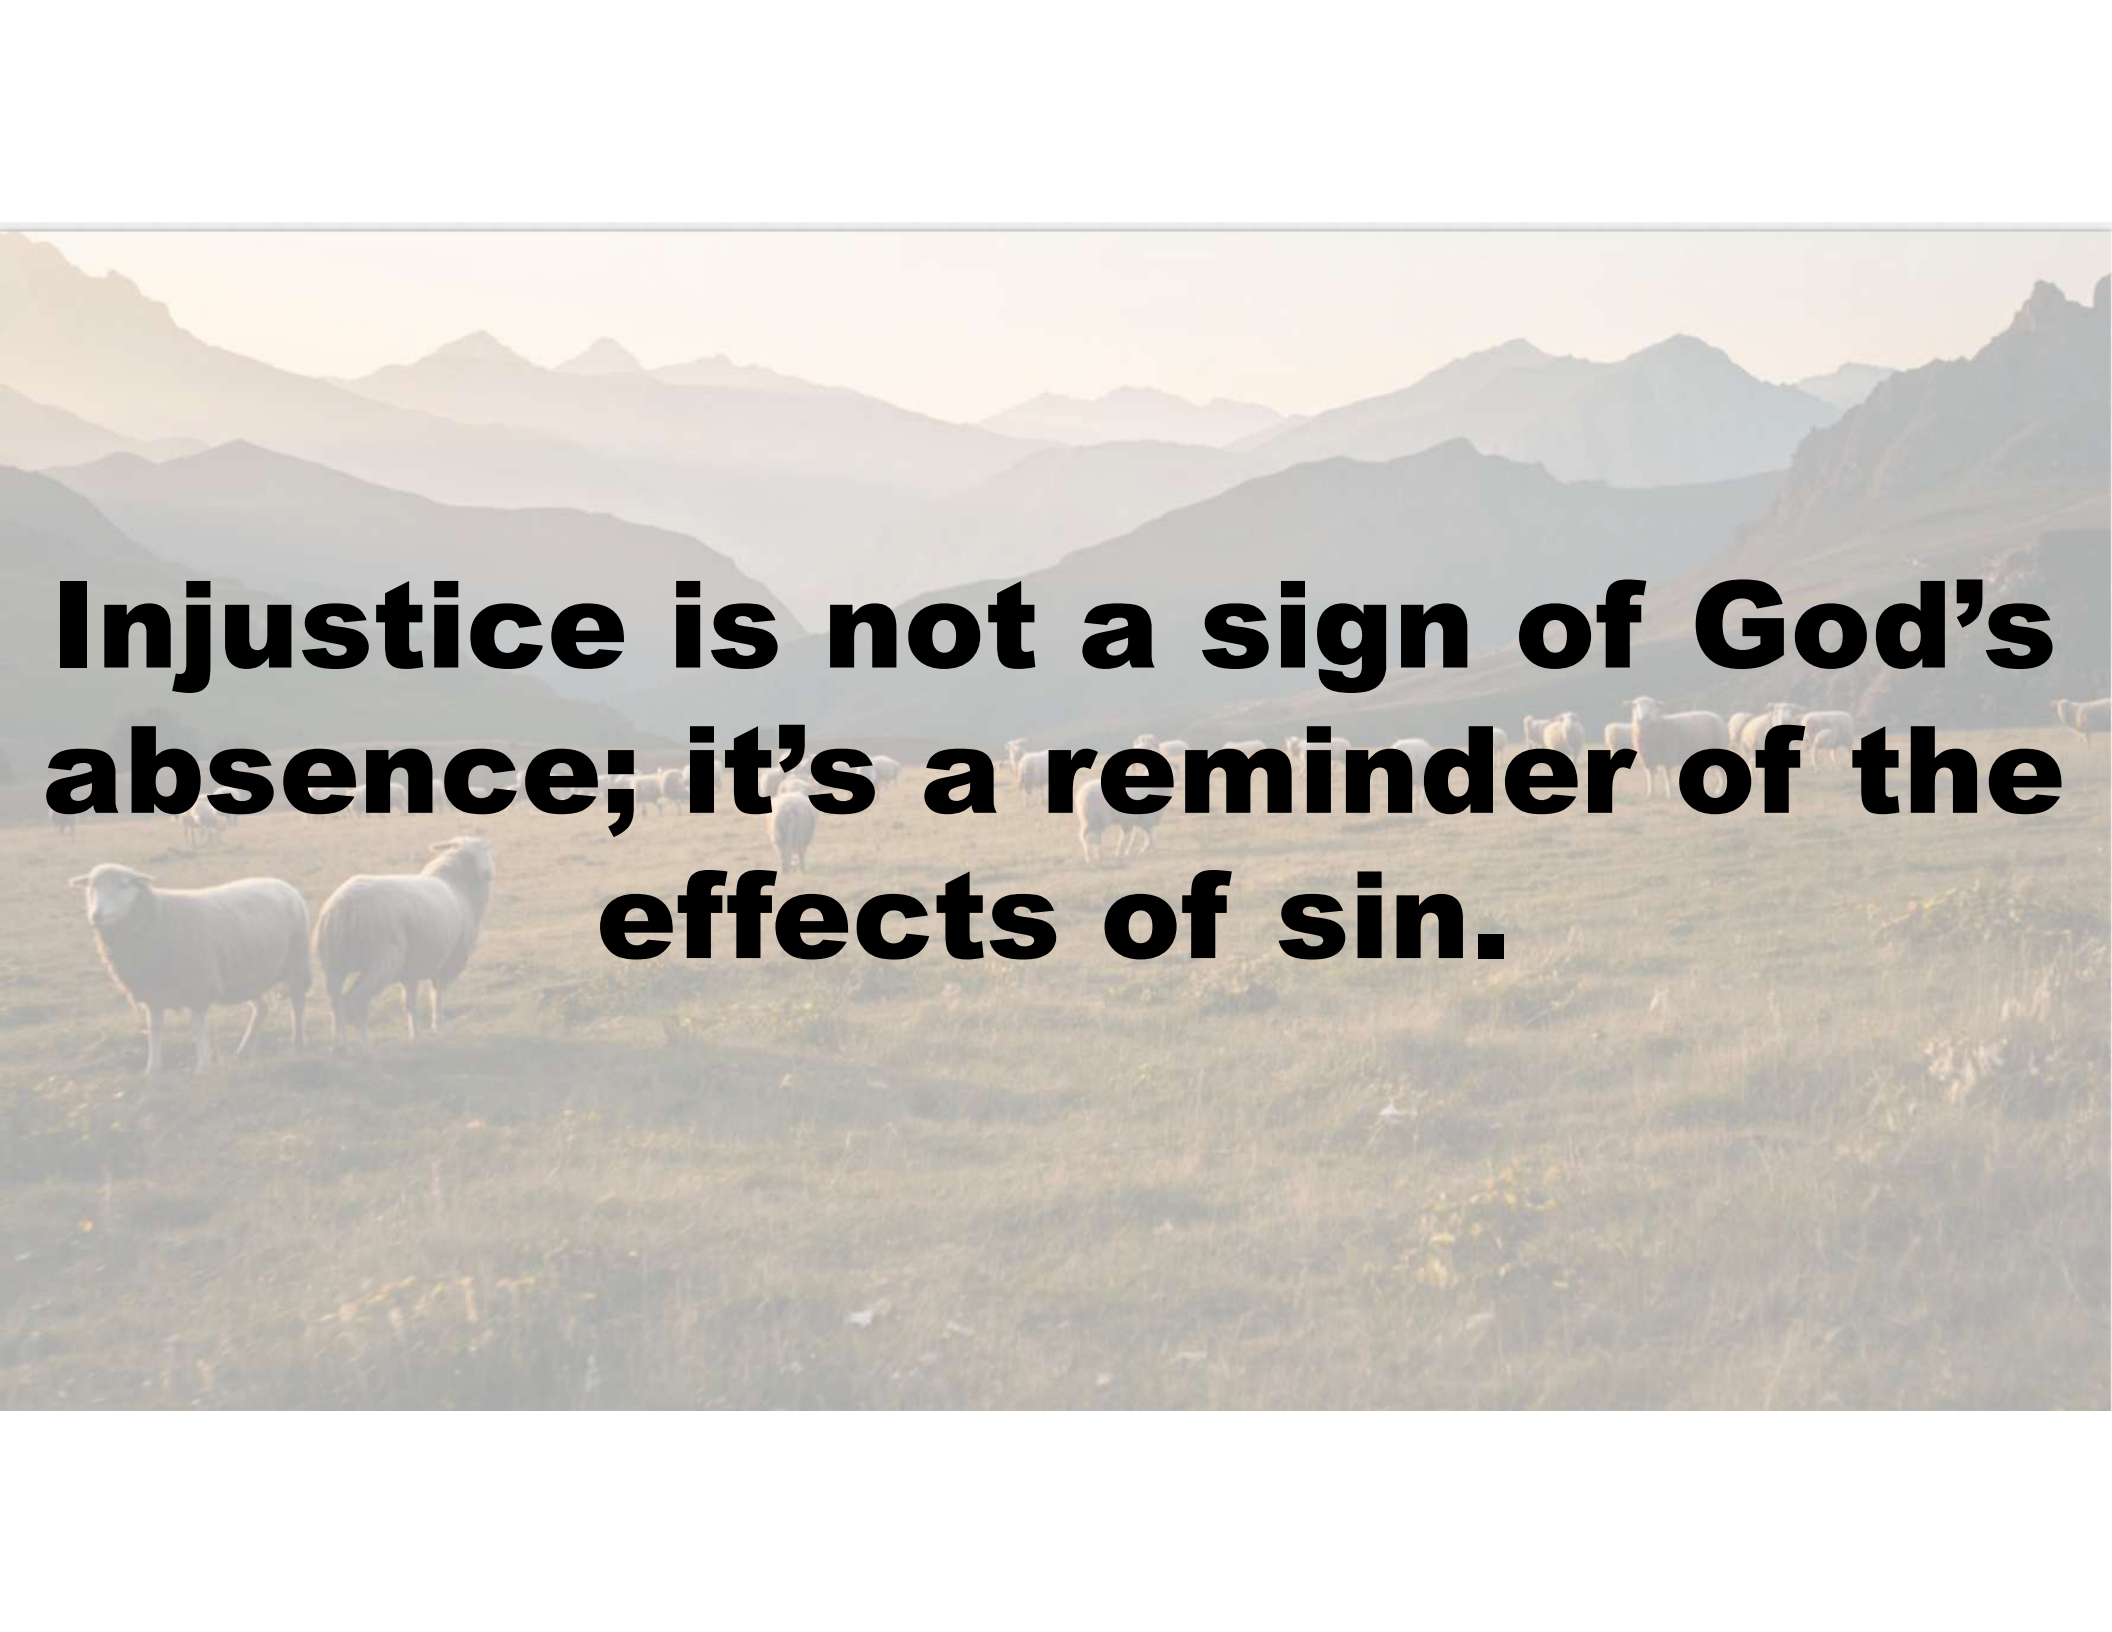

- enthusiastic praise stirred by the Holy Spirit to speak or sing by divine inspiration.

A landscape photograph showing a herd of sheep in a grassy field in the foreground, with a range of mountains in the background under a hazy sky. The text is overlaid in the center.

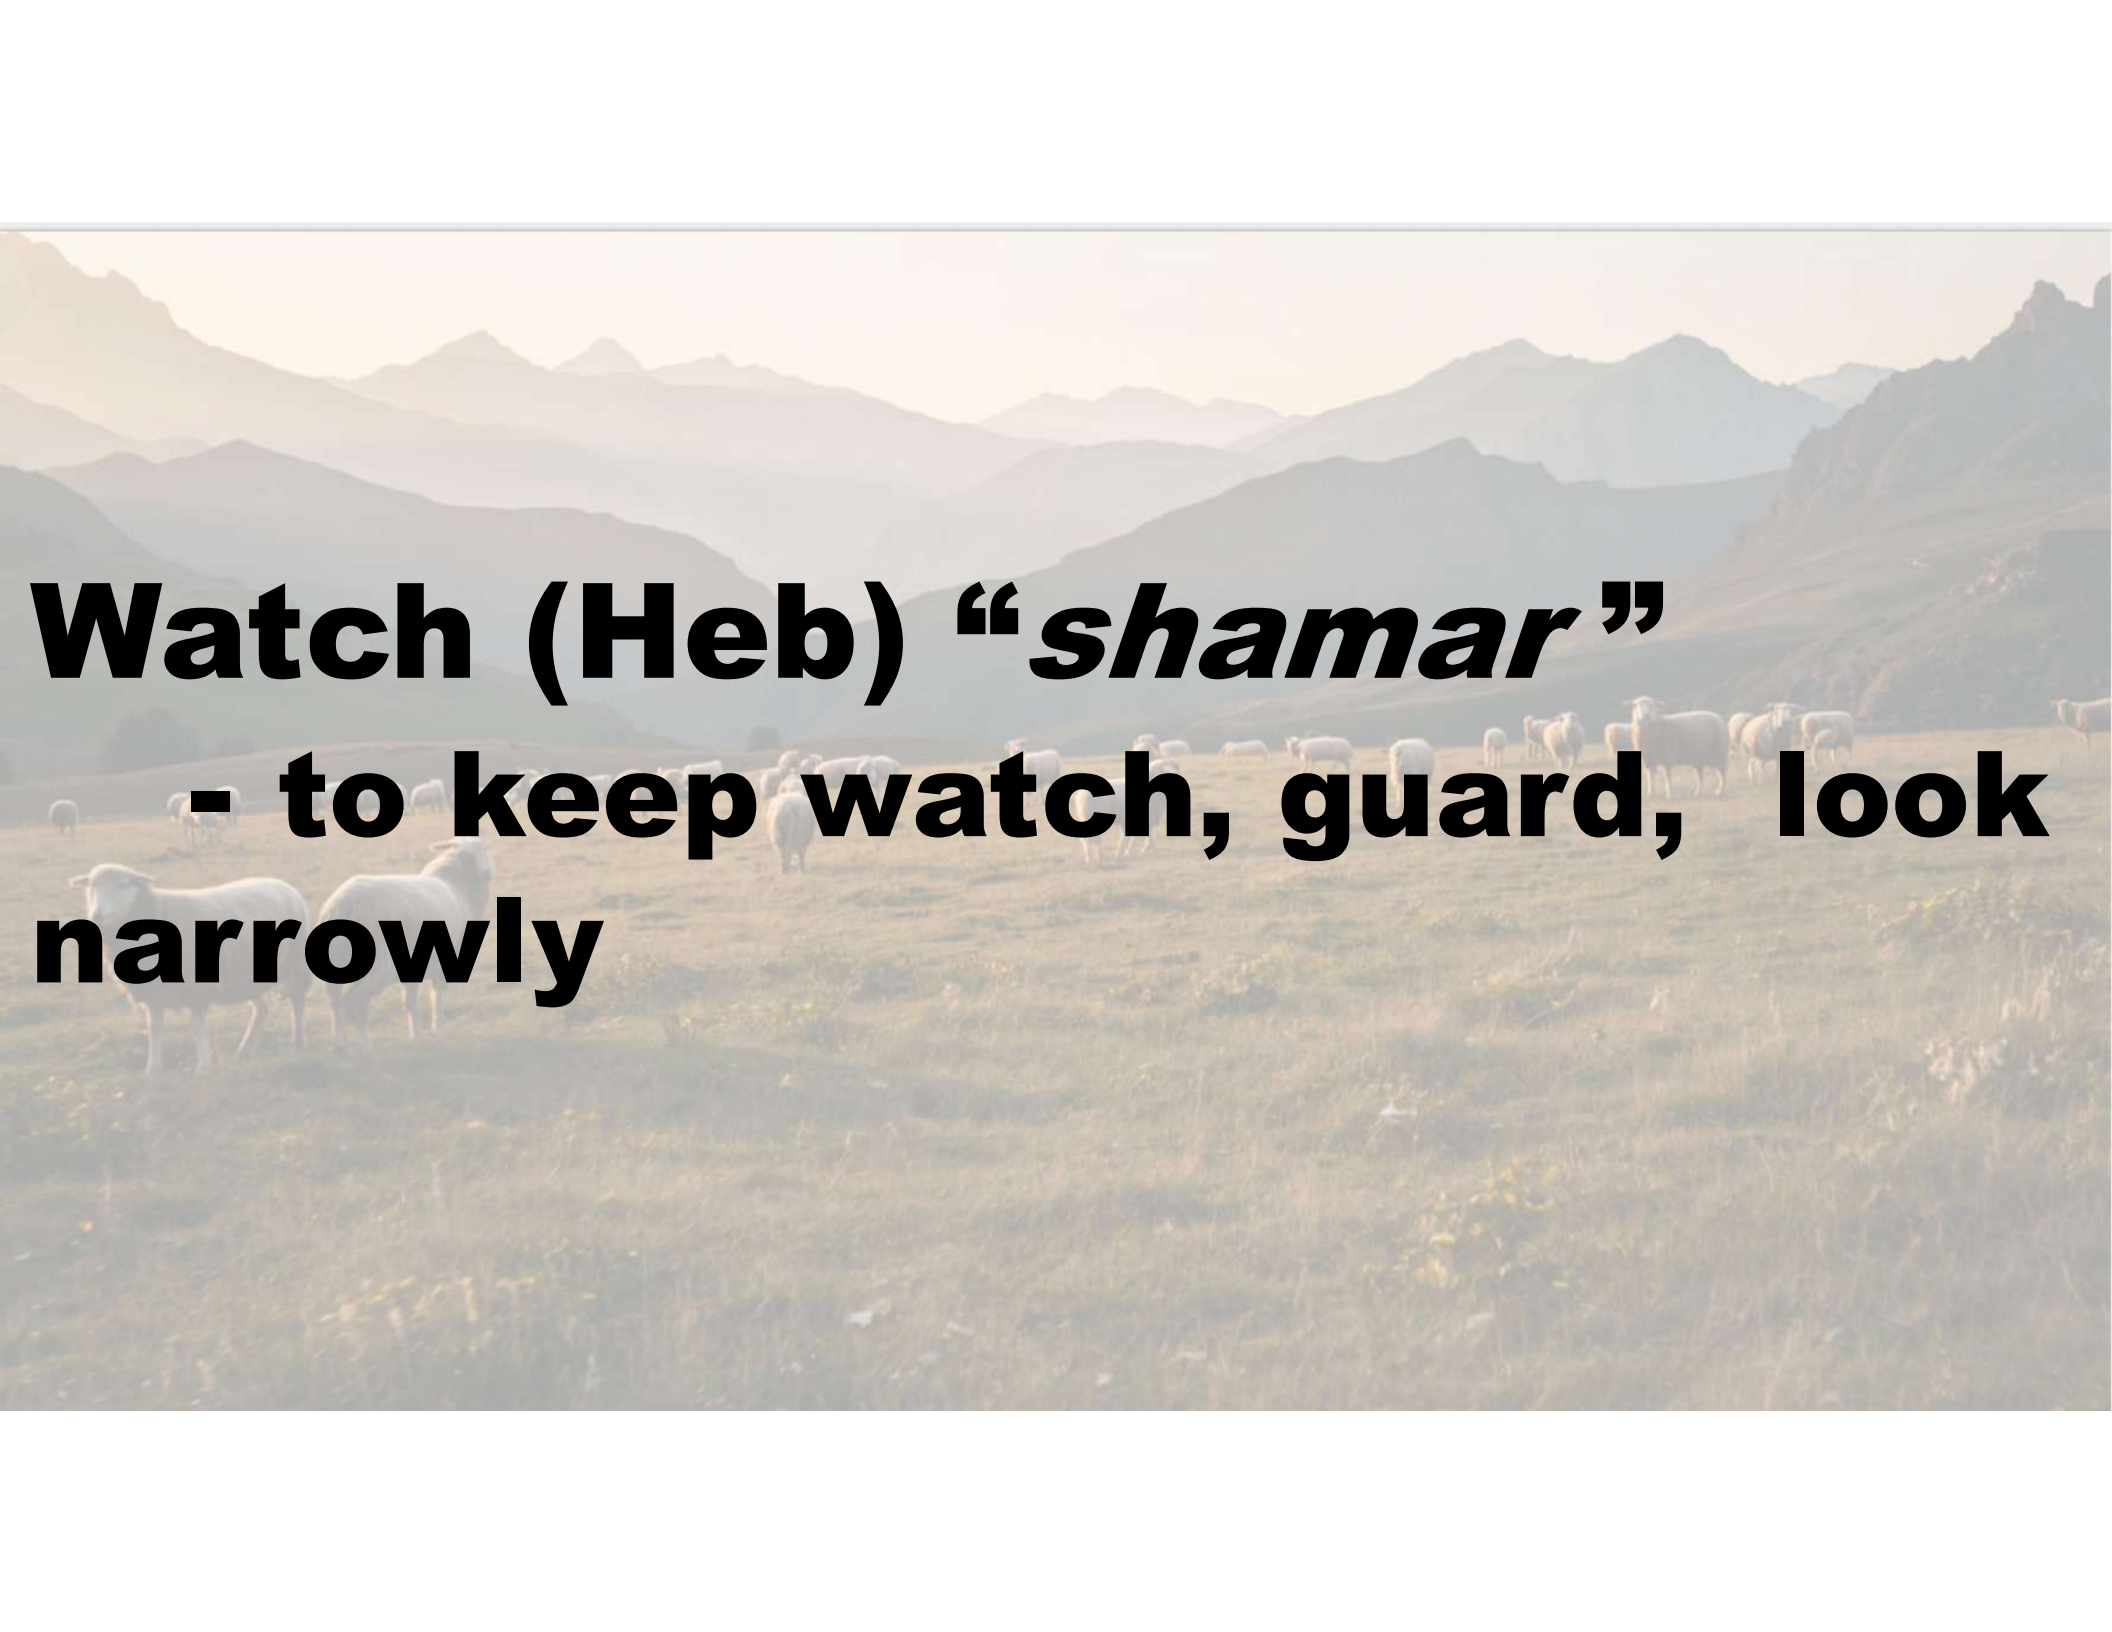

You cannot have the Holy Spirit working inside you and remain unchanged.

II. The Evil and the Protector
(Psalm 59)

A landscape photograph showing a herd of sheep in a grassy field in the foreground. In the background, there are several layers of mountains, with the closest ones being dark and the ones further away becoming increasingly hazy and lighter in color, suggesting a misty or hazy atmosphere. The sky is a pale, warm color, possibly from a sunrise or sunset. The overall scene is peaceful and natural.

Injustice is not a sign of God's absence; it's a reminder of the effects of sin.

Watch (Heb) “shamar”

- to keep watch, guard, look narrowly

Meet (Heb) “yekademeni”
- come in front of, go before,
confront

When evil surrounds me and I am afraid, I will trust in You.

When surrounded by evil, God is our only source for perfect love and faithfulness.
