

Chosen By God
Chapters 1 and 2

1. How did chapters 1 and 2 encourage, challenge or inform you?

2. How familiar are you with the doctrine of predestination? Before reading this chapter, could you define it?

3. From page 2-3, what do the verses listed (Ephesians 1:4-5, Ephesians 1:11, and Romans 8:29) teach us about the doctrine of predestination?

4. From pages 13-14, If God is not sovereign over everything in the universe, what do we have to conclude?

5. From pages 20-21, what are some differences between the reformed and non-reformed view of predestination?

6. Is a just and holy God required to extend mercy to every fallen person? Why or why not?

7. From pages 26-27, can autonomy and sovereignty coexist? Explain your answer.
