Homework Questions from:
The Gospel-Centered Community (Lesson 7) &
What is Church Government (Sean Michael Lucas)

From Gospel-Centered Community, Lesson 7:

i. Is there anything in that lesson that stood out to you or that you want to discuss further?

ii. What are some reasons – for you – that you want to appear a certain way to people?

iii. Why do you think "image management" feels safer and easier than being honest? How does this impact the depth of honesty we can experience as a group and our ability to love and serve others?

iv. From the Lesson 7 Exercise: What stuck out to you as you did the exercise titled "Telling the Truth About Ourselves"?

a. How were you challenged or convicted as you did the exercise titled "Telling the Truth to Others"?

From What is Church Government?:

i. How did this short book inform your understanding of church government? Did you learn anything new?

ii. From page 7, who is the King of the church?

a) What does this role entail?

iii. From pages 16-18, what are the different types of disciplines?

iv. From page 21, what are the duties of the elders and what is the difference between a ruling and a teaching elder?
