

Future Grace Questions

Chapter 9 – Four Pillars of a Precious Promise

Grasping the Big Idea

1. Is there anything that stood out to you from this chapter? Any questions, observations, or encouragements?
2. From pages 119-120, Piper unpacks four “pillars” that uphold the promise of Romans 8:28. What are they, and why are they unshakeable?
3. From pages 121-122, Why does Piper insist that the “call” in Romans 8:30 must be an effective, faith-creating call??
4. From pages 123-125, What is the deepest foundation beneath predestination, and why does Piper say it is essential?

Challenged to Change

1. Do you ever doubt that “all things” are really being worked for your good? Why?

2. Which of the four pillars (sovereignty, wisdom, goodness, faithfulness) is hardest for you to believe in practice?

3. How might meditating on these attributes of God change the way you respond to suffering or uncertainty?

Praying for Change

Pray that God would anchor your faith in who He is, not what you see. Ask Him to remind you that He is working for your good—even in the dark—and to deepen your rest in His wise, loving rule
