Chapter 20 – What Faith Alone Can Perform

Grasping the Big Idea

1. Is there anything that stood out to you from this chapter? Any questions, observations, or encouragements?
2. From page 251. What “lurking problem” does Piper identify at the beginning of the chapter??
3. From pages 253-254. What new tension arises when Piper introduces outward conditions such as good works and love?
4. From page 255. How does Piper resolve the dilemma between faith and love?

Challenged to Change

1. Do you ever treat faith as a one-time event rather than an ongoing dependence?

2. How might redefining faith as “trusting in what God will be for you” reshape your obedience?

3. What habits or disciplines help you actively rest in Christ today?

Praying for Change

Ask the Lord to deepen your understanding of faith—not as mere belief, but as a living dependence. Pray that your trust would grow stronger in trial and more joyful in obedience.
