Giving Tree for Family Promise & Housing Advocate Network

Help make the holidays more joyful this year for families and individuals who, with the support of Family Promise and the Housing Advocate Network, have found housing this past year. Contributions will provide gifts for children from their wish list, gift cards for adults, and grocery cards to help purchase food for the holidays. Please wrap gifts and bring them to the MIC office by Monday December 11th.

Volunteers Needed for Giving Tree!

In addition to the Giving Tree donations, we are looking for folks to assist with the following tasks. If you are able to help or have questions please reach out to rebecca@micmt.org to nancy@imluchurch.org

Ribbon Cutting for Missoula Works Sewing Ventures

Thank you to everyone that joined us for the ribbon-cutting event on November 15th, celebrating the official launch of Missoula Works Sewing Ventures! Attendees enjoyed food, drinks, a tour of the facilities, and had the opportunity to purchase a beautiful hand made item. Be sure to check out the KPAX story about the event!

Our local stitchers have created a line of high-quality, sustainable products including totes, fanny packs, cross body bags and more! Items can now be purchased online at: www.missoulaworksventures.org

MIC Benefit Concert

Please join us for an intimate evening of music that journeys from darkness to light with Montana recording artist John Floridis on guitar & vocals. He will be joined by cellist Jennifer Slayden, and percussionist Ed Stalling. Attendees are invited to participate in a free-will contribution and proceeds will go to support Missoula Interfaith Collaborative. The concert will take place Sunday, December 17th @ 7pm at First United Methodist Church (300 East Main Street)
