- ① What expectations do you bring—consciously or unconsciously—when you call Jesus “king”?
- ② In what ways can people be right about Jesus and still misunderstand Him?
- ③ What makes uncontrolled praise threatening to established power? (cf. Zechariah 9:9)
- ④ What does it mean to follow a king who will not be useful on demand?
- ⑤ When has God disappointed your expectations but deepened your faith? (cf. Isaiah 50:4–5)
- ⑥ How might this story speak to political or cultural attempts to claim Jesus?
- ⑦ What would it look like to follow Jesus even when you don’t get the ending you want?
